

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2018-EAB-0320

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On February 8, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant voluntarily left work without good cause (decision # 134537). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On February 27, 2018, the Office of Administrative Hearings mailed a notice of hearing for March 13, 2018 to the parties at each party's address of record. On March 13, 2018, ALJ Griffin conducted a hearing, at which the employer failed to appear, and on March 14, 2018 issued Order No. 18-UI-105122, concluding the employer discharged claimant, but not for misconduct. On April 3, 2018, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

With its application for review, the employer submitted written argument in which it asked EAB to consider new information regarding claimant's work separation. OAR 471-041-0090(2) (October 29, 2006) allows EAB to consider information not received into evidence at the hearing only if the party offering the information establishes that factors or circumstances beyond the party's reasonable control prevented the party from offering the information into evidence at the hearing. The employer asserted that it failed to appear at the March 13, 2018 hearing and offer its information into evidence at that time because it did not receive the February 27, 2018 notice of hearing in the mail. However, documents sent through the U.S. Postal service are presumed to have been received by the addressee, subject to evidence to the contrary. OAR 137-003-0520(9). The employer's bare assertion, without supporting evidence, that it did not receive the notice of hearing is insufficient to overcome that presumption. The employer's request for EAB to consider its new information therefore is denied.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the hearing decision under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 18-UI-105122 is affirmed.
