

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2018-EAB-1082

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On September 28, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant voluntarily left work without good cause (decision # 160251). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On October 31, 2018, ALJ R. Frank conducted a hearing, and on November 8, 2018 issued Order No. 18-UI-119434, affirming the Department's decision. On November 15, 2018, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

Claimant failed to certify that he provided a copy of his argument to the other parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (October 29, 2006). Therefore, we did not consider the argument when reaching this decision. Even if we had, the outcome of this decision would remain the same. Claimant argued that the ALJ erred in failing to consider his timeline and questioning claimant despite his attorney not being present; a review of the record shows that claimant adequately communicated his timeline during the hearing, and claimant had the right to bring his attorney to the hearing if he wished to have representation.

Claimant argued that he did not quit his job because his job ended on August 1st and the employer removed his access to electronic programs on August 6th. Claimant admitted in his argument and at the hearing, however, that he continued to work for the employer after August 1st, and the record shows that despite claimant's lack of access to electronic systems the employer continued to communicate its offer of ongoing employment to claimant, albeit in a different position, through August 8th. For those reasons, and those set forth in Order No. 18-UI-119434, the record shows that the employer did not discharge him from employment, but, rather, that claimant quit work.

With respect to claimant's arguments about the reduction in pay he believed would result from continuing to work for the employer, OAR 471-030-0038(5)(d)(A) provides that leaving work without good cause includes leaving work due to a reduction in pay resulting from a transfer, demotion, or reassignment. Because any change in claimant's pay structure would have been the result of his transfer, demotion, or reassignment, and despite the fact that claimant thought the change would result in a significant reduction in his earnings, that change did not constitute good cause for leaving work. For those reasons, even if we had considered claimant's argument the outcome of this decision would remain the same.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the Order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 18-UI-119434 is affirmed.
