

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2018-EAB-1120

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 5, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served, by mail, notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant for misconduct (decision # 85900). On October 25, 2018, decision # 85900 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On November 1, 2018, claimant filed a late request for hearing. On November 6, 2018, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 18-UI-119281, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as untimely without a showing of good cause, subject to her right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by November 20, 2018. On November 25, 2018, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire with the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) and a timely application for review of Order No. 18-UI-119281 by the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On November 29, 2018, ALJ Kangas served notice that because claimant's response was late, OAH would not consider her response or issue another order regarding this matter, and that Order No. 18-UI-119281 therefore remained in effect.

With her application for review, claimant submitted a copy of her November 25, 2018 response to the appellant questionnaire. EAB marked and received claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire into evidence as EAB Exhibit 1, and considered it when reaching this decision, under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (October 29, 2016), under which exhibits offered but not received into the hearing record may be received into evidence as necessary to complete the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 18-UI-119281 is reversed, and this matter is remanded for a hearing and Order on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 85900 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # 85900.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date it is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

In her response to the appellant questionnaire, claimant stated that she filed her request for hearing on decision # 85900 late because she never received the October 5th notice of the decision, first learned of the decision when speaking with a Department representative on November 1, 2018, and filed her request for hearing that same day. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1-2. Claimant's statement suggests that she may have had good cause for her late request for hearing, and filed her request within a reasonable time. However, further inquiry is needed into the facts necessary for a determination of those issues. Order No. 18-UI-119281 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing and Order on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 85900 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # 85900.

DECISION: Order No. 18-UI-119281 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

D. P. Hettle and S. Alba;
J. S. Cromwell, not participating.

DATE of Service: December 13, 2018

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 18-UI-119281 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent Order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
