

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2018-EAB-1121

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 22, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant voluntarily left work without good cause (decision # 172423). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On November 16, 2018, ALJ Snyder conducted a hearing at which the employer failed to appear, and on November 20, 2018, issued Order No. 18-UI-119993, concluding claimant voluntarily left work with good cause. On December 3, 2018, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

With its application for review, the employer submitted written argument in which it asked EAB to reopen the hearing in order for the employer to participate. The employer failed to certify that it provided a copy of its argument to the other parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (October 29, 2006). Therefore, we did not consider the argument when reaching this decision. Even if we had, however, the outcome of this case would remain the same. ORS 657.270(5) provides that any party who failed to appear at a hearing may request to reopen the hearing, and the request will be allowed if it was filed within 20 days of the date the hearing decision was issued and shows good cause for failing to appear. "Good cause" exists when the requesting party's failure to appear at the hearing arose from an excusable mistake or from factors beyond the party's reasonable control. OAR 471-040-0040(2) (February 10, 2012). The employer asserted that it failed to appear at the November 16, 2018 hearing and offer its information into evidence at that time because "there was an unscheduled corporate visit the morning of the hearing and [the employer's representative who had planned to attend the hearing] was immediately called into a meeting and was unable to call in for the hearing." Employer's Written Argument. The employer failed to explain specifically why one employee's need to attend the unscheduled meeting prevented another person representing the employer from attending the hearing or requesting a postponement of the hearing, or why the meeting was so urgent that it was a higher priority for the employer's representative to attend the meeting than participate in the unemployment benefits hearing. Without such explanations, EAB has no reason to conclude that the employer's failure to appear at the hearing arose from factors beyond the employer's reasonable control. Accordingly, the employer's request to reopen the hearing is denied.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), Order No. 18-UI-119993 is adopted, except that we correct the date of August 16, 2018 in findings of fact 1 and 6 to August 17, 2018.

DECISION: Order No. 18-UI-119993 is affirmed.

D. P. Hettle and S. Alba;
J. S. Cromwell, not participating.
