

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2018-EAB-1127

Affirmed
Late Requests for Hearing Dismissed

FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 24, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notices of two administrative decisions, one concluding that claimant quit working for NK Remodeling And Construction, LLC (NK Remodeling) without good cause (decision # 144634), and the other concluding that claimant was not able, available and actively seeking work from August 26 through September 29 and October 7 through 20, 2018 (decision # 140809). On November 13, 2018, decision # 144634 and decision # 140809 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing on either decision. On November 14, 2018, claimant filed late requests for hearing on both decisions. On November 20, 2018, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 18-UI-119998 dismissing claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 144634 and Order No. 18-UI-119999 dismissing claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 140809, subject to claimant's right to renew the requests by responding to appellant questionnaires by December 4, 2018. On December 6, 2018, claimant filed late responses to the appellant questionnaires and timely applications for review of Order No. 18-UI-119998 and Order No. 18-UI-119999 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 10, 2018, ALJ Kangas served notice that because claimant's responses to the appellant questionnaires were late, they would not be considered, and Order No. 18-UI-119998 and Order No. 18-UI-119999 therefore remained in effect.

Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Order No. 18-UI-119998 and Order No. 18-UI-119999. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in duplicate (EAB Decisions 2018-EAB-1127 and 2018-EAB-1128).

Claimant submitted his responses to the appellant questionnaires with his applications for review. EAB marked and received claimant's responses to the appellant questionnaires into evidence as EAB Exhibit 1 and considered them when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (October 29, 2016), under which exhibits offered but not received into the hearing record may be received into evidence as necessary to complete the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late requests for hearing on Order No. 18-UI-119998 and Order No. 18-UI-119999 are dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date it is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The first issue in this case is whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 144634 or decision # 140809. Department records indicate that claimant filed his requests for hearing on both decisions on November 14, 2018, one day after the November 13, 2018 filing deadline. Exhibit 2. The appellant questionnaires asked claimant, "If you did not file your hearing request (appeal) before the deadline stated in the administrative decision, why didn't you?" EAB Exhibit 1. In his responses, claimant answered, "I did," but then seemed to explain why he did not file his hearing request before the deadline. Id. The appellant questionnaires also asked, "Was there anything you could have done to meet the deadline?" Id. In one response, claimant answered, "No, I tried to call Unemployment and they said I was okay and they would extend my timeline." Id. In the other response, claimant answered, "I didn't dis [sic] meet the time line." Id. Claimant's answers fail to establish that, contrary to the Department's records, he filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 144634 or decision # 140809 before November 14, 2018.

The next issue is whether claimant showed good cause to extend the deadline for filing his requests for hearing on decision # 144634 and decision # 140809. In his responses to the appellant questionnaires, claimant seemed to state that he delayed filing his request for hearing because he had a lawsuit pending against NK Remodeling for sexual assault and was advised by his attorney, who coached him "through everything," not to disclose "that information." Id. However, claimant also stated that it was his sexual assault case/lawsuit against NK Remodeling that prompted him to file his request for hearing on the day it was filed. Id. Claimant's statements fail to identify any specific factors beyond his reasonable control that prevented him from filing his requests for hearing by the November 13, 2018 deadline, but which ceased to exist one day later, allowing him to file his requests on November 14, 2018. It is more likely that claimant simply made a mistake in filing his requests for hearing one day late. However, claimant failed to establish that it was an "excusable mistake" within the meaning of the administrative rules because he did not, for example, raise a due process issue, or show that his mistake was the result of legally defective notice or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply.

Claimant therefore failed to establish good cause to extend the deadline for filing his requests for hearing on decision # 144634 and decision # 140809. His late requests for hearing therefore are dismissed.

DECISION: Order No. 18-UI-119998 and Order No. 18-UI-119999 are affirmed.
