

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2018-EAB-1138

Application for Review Dismissed

FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 2, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant for misconduct (decision # 145157). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On October 16, 2018, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) served, by mail, notice of a hearing scheduled for October 30, 2018. On October 30, 2018, ALJ Scott conducted a hearing at which the employer failed to appear and issued Order No. 18-UI-118920, concluding the employer discharged claimant but not for misconduct. On November 19, 2018, Order No. 18-UI-118920 became final without the employer having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 11, 2018, the employer filed a late application for review with EAB.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The application for review should be dismissed.

On December 11, 2018, the appellant filed an application for review of Order No. 18-UI-118920 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(c) required the application for review to be filed no later than November 19, 2018. The deadline for filing a late application for review may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of good cause. OAR 471-041-0070. "Good cause" exists when the applicant provides satisfactory evidence that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. Id. "A reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented timely filing ceased to exist. Id.

In order to be considered for such an extension, however, an appellant must include "a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing." OAR 471-041-0070(3). Here, the employer provided no explanation as to why the application for review was filed after the filing deadline expired, stating only that it failed to appear at the October 30, 2018 hearing because the October 16, 2018 notice of hearing was delivered to an address that is "no longer active." Absent a written statement explaining why the application for review was filed after the filing deadline, the employer's application for review is dismissed.¹

¹ Even if the employer had stated that its application for review was late because Order No. 18-UI-118920 also was delivered to the same "inactive" address, the outcome of this decision would remain the same. Absent additional information, Order No. 18-UI-118920 remains undisturbed. EAB will take no further action with regard to this matter.

DECISION: The application for review filed December 11, 2018 is dismissed. Order No. 18-UI-118920 remains undisturbed.

including when the address became inactive and whether the employer notified the Department of its address change, and when the employer received or otherwise became aware of Order No. 18-UI-118920, we could not find that the employer had good cause to extend the filing deadline from November 19, 2018 to December 11, 2018.
