

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0013

Reverse and Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On November 20, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant voluntarily left work without good cause (decision # 72125). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On December 4, 2018, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for December 18, 2018 to the parties at their addresses of record. On December 18, 2018, ALJ S. Lee conducted a hearing at which the employer failed to appear, and on December 20, 2018 issued Order No. 18-UI-121604, concluding that claimant voluntarily left work with good cause. On December 27, 2018, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 18-UI-121604 is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control prevented it from appearing at the December 18, 2018 hearing and, if so, another hearing on the merits of decision # 72125.

In its application for review, the employer asked for the December 18, 2018 hearing to be reopened. We construe the employer's request as a request for consideration of new information under OAR 471-041-0090 (October 29, 2006), under which new information may be considered if the party offering the information shows it was prevented by circumstances beyond its reasonable control from offering the information into evidence at the hearing.

In support of its request, the employer stated that it failed to appear at the hearing because "On the morning of December 18th, 2018 I arrived at work prepared to take part in the hearing. My co-worker was scheduled early as well to provide coverage in the sales department while I was on the phone taking part in the hearing. Unfortunately, he called in sick on that day and I was left with no coverage. I had to conduct business and was unable to call in to the hearing." The employer's statement suggests that its failure to appear at the hearing might have been the result of factors or circumstances beyond its reasonable control. However, further inquiry is needed into the facts necessary for a determination of that issue. Order No. 18-UI-121604 therefore is reversed and this matter remanded for further proceedings to determine whether the December 18, 2018 hearing should be reopened and, if so, another hearing on the merits of decision # 72125.

DECISION: Order No. 18-UI-121604 is set aside, and this matter is remanded for further proceedings consistent with this Order.

D. P. Hettle and S. Alba;
J. S. Cromwell, not participating.

DATE of Service: January 11, 2019

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 18-UI-121604 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent Order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
