

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0026

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On October 29, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant, not for misconduct (decision # 65234). The employer filed a timely request for hearing. On November 19, 2018, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for December 14, 2018 to the parties at their addresses of record. On December 14, 2018, ALJ Snyder conducted a hearing at which claimant failed to appear and issued Order No. 18-UI-121271, concluding that claimant's discharge was for misconduct. On January 3, 2019, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 18-UI-121271 is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether the December 14, 2018 hearing should be reopened and, if so, another hearing on the merits of decision # 65234.

In his application for review of Order No. 18-UI-121271, claimant stated that he failed to appear at the December 14, 2018 hearing because "I received no phone call or date or place for this hearing," and that he was very upset about being disqualified from receiving benefits without an opportunity to be heard. We construe claimant's statement as a request for consideration of new information under OAR 471-041-0090 (October 29, 2006), under which new information may be considered when the party offering the information establishes that factors or circumstances beyond his reasonable control prevented him from offering the information into evidence at the hearing.

In support of his request, claimant asserted that he is homeless, has mail delivered to his father's residence and never received the November 19, 2018 notice of the December 14, 2018 hearing. Claimant further asserted that after receiving documents regarding the upcoming hearing from the employer's representative, he contacted the Department and asked if there was a telephone number or location for the hearing, and was told that the hearing involved only the employer and the Department. Claimant's assertions suggest that factors or circumstances beyond his reasonable control may have prevented him from appearing at the hearing and offering information into evidence at that time. However, further inquiry is needed into the facts necessary for a determination of that issue. Order No.

18-UI-121271 therefore is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether the December 14, 2018 hearing should be reopened and, if so, another hearing on the merits of decision # 65234.

DECISION: Order No. 18-UI-121271 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.
