

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0081

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On November 29, 2018, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant for misconduct (decision # 85421). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On January 2, 2019, ALJ L. Lee conducted a hearing, and on January 4, 2019, issued Order No. 19-UI-122166, affirming the Department's decision. On January 22, 2019, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

Claimant submitted written argument to EAB consisting of a Settlement Agreement and Release in Full of All Claims (Agreement) between claimant and the employer, signed on January 15, 2019. OAR 471-041-0090 (October 29, 2006) allows EAB to consider new information not received into evidence at hearing upon a showing that factors or circumstances beyond the offering party's reasonable control prevented the party from offering the information at hearing and that the new information is relevant and material to EAB's determination. Because claimant and the employer executed the Agreement after the hearing, claimant has shown that circumstances beyond her reasonable control prevented her from offering the Agreement into evidence at hearing. However, claimant did not explain why the Settlement is material to EAB's determination. In the Agreement, the employer agreed to withdraw claimant's dismissal, and claimant agreed to resign. To the extent claimant submitted the Agreement to show her work separation was a voluntarily leaving rather than a discharge, the Agreement is not relevant and material to EAB's determination because the nature of the work separation is determined not by the parties' characterizations, but by applying Employment Department law. Moreover, although the employer obviously has a copy of the Agreement, claimant did not send a copy of her written argument to the employer, affording the employer with notice and an opportunity to respond as required by OAR 471-041-0090. We therefore did not consider claimant's new information, and considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. See ORS 657.275(2).

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the Order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-122166 is affirmed.
