

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION 2019-EAB-0233

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On January 22, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant, but not for misconduct (decision # 71049). The employer filed a timely request for hearing. On February 12, 2019, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for February 26, 2019. On February 26, 2019, ALJ M. Davis conducted a hearing at which claimant failed to appear, and on February 28, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-125497 concluding that the employer discharged claimant for misconduct. On March 5, 2019, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

With her application for review, claimant asked that her hearing be reopened. Claimant's request is construed as a request for EAB to consider new information under OAR 471-041-0090 (October 29, 2006). OAR 471-041-0090(2)(b) allows EAB to consider new information if the party offering the information shows it was prevented by circumstances beyond its reasonable control from presenting the information at the hearing. In support of her request, claimant argued that she "did not ever receive any letter regarding a court hearing I was supposed to be at" and did not know about the hearing until she "received a letter on 2/28/2019 that was the court papers about that outcome of the hearing but none prior to that." Generally speaking, documents sent through the U.S. Postal service are presumed to have been received by the addressee, subject to evidence to the contrary. OAR 137-003-0520(9). Claimant's bare assertion of non-receipt, without more, is insufficient to overcome the presumption of receipt. However, the fact that claimant received some hearing-related documents but not others suggests the possible existence of a mail delivery problem that might amount to a circumstance beyond her reasonable control, and a hearing is required to gather information about the circumstances that caused or resulted in claimant failing to attend the February 26th hearing on decision # 71049. This case is therefore remanded to the Office of Administrative Hearings for further proceedings. The threshold issue for the hearing on remand is whether claimant should be allowed to submit additional evidence in this matter based upon her failure to appear at the hearing. Only if claimant establishes good cause to reopen would the merits of decision # 71049 be at issue.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-125497 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

J. S. Cromwell and D. P. Hettle;
S. Alba, not participating.

DATE of Service: March 11, 2019

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 19-UI-125497 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent Order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
