

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0265

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On January 31, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant for misconduct (decision # 105226). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On February 13, 2019, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for February 28, 2019. On February 28, 2019, ALJ Murdock conducted the hearing at which the employer failed to appear, and on March 4, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-125687 concluding claimant's discharge was not for misconduct. On March 13, 2019, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

In its written argument, the employer offered additional evidence about claimant's work separation, stating that the information was not submitted earlier in the proceedings because the employer did not receive notice of the underlying proceedings. We construe the employer's request as a request for EAB to consider new information under OAR 471-041-0090 (October 29, 2006), which allows EAB to consider information not presented at the hearing of the party offering the information shows that circumstances beyond its reasonable control prevented it from presenting the information at the hearing.

In support of the employer's request, the employer asserted that "the address you have on file is incorrect therefore we have not been receiving our documentation in a timely manner and was not informed of the hearing that was scheduled until after the fact." Record documents show that documentation thus far has been mailed to the employer at the street number 5586. However, the employer's actual street number is 5506. That Department and OAH records contain an error in the employer's address, resulting in the employer's failure to receive notice of the hearing in this case, appears to have been a circumstance beyond the employer's reasonable control that prevented the employer from presenting evidence at the hearing. The employer's request is, therefore, allowed, Order No. 19-UI-125687 is reversed, and this matter is remanded for a new hearing and hearing decision based upon the record of the new proceedings before OAH.

Please note, while the employer has successfully updated its address with the Employment Appeals Board, the employer must also contact the Office of Administrative Hearings and Oregon Employment Department separately to update its address and/or confirm that its address has successfully been updated with those offices.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-125687 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

J. S. Cromwell and D. P. Hettle;
S. Alba, not participating.

DATE of Service: March 15, 2019

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. No. 19-UI-125687 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent Order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
