

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0313

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On January 18, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant, but not for misconduct (decision # 84957). The employer filed a timely request for hearing. On February 19, 2019, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) served notice of a hearing scheduled for March 5, 2019. On March 5, 2019, ALJ Murdock conducted the hearing, at which claimant failed to appear, and on March 8, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-126060, concluding that the employer discharged claimant for misconduct. On March 26, 2019, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 19-UI-126060 is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant is entitled to have the March 5th hearing on decision # 84957 reopened and, if so, the merits of that decision.

In her application for review, claimant stated that she failed to appear at the March 5th hearing because “I had a very important medical appointment I couldn’t miss. As I had the opportunity to take this appointment because it’s important to my health which is first and foremost because I have a daughter to have to take care of.” We infer from claimant’s statement that she is requesting another hearing, which is construed as a request for consideration of new information regarding her work separation for the employer. Such information may be considered when the party offering the information establishes that factors or circumstances beyond the party’s reasonable control prevented the party from offering the information into evidence at the prior hearing. See OAR 471-041-0090(2) (October 29, 2006).

Claimant’s statement suggests that factors or circumstances beyond her reasonable control might have prevented her from appearing at the March 5th hearing and offering information regarding her work separation into evidence at that time. However, further inquiry into the facts necessary for a determination of that issue is required. Order No. 19-UI-126060 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant is entitled to have the March 5th hearing on decision # 84957 reopened and, if so, the merits of that decision.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-126060 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

J. S. Cromwell and D. P. Hettle;
S. Alba, not participating.

DATE of Service: April 5, 2019

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 19-UI-126060 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent Order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
