

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0332

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On May 25, 2016, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice, by mail, of an administrative decision concluding that claimant willfully underreported earnings to obtain benefits, and therefore was overpaid $976 in benefits that he must repay the Department, is disqualified from 14 weeks of future benefits, and was assessed a $292.80 monetary penalty (decision # 200723). On June 14, 2016, decision # 200723 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On March 19, 2019, claimant filed a late request for hearing. On March 21, 2019, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 19-UI-126826, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as untimely without a showing of good cause, subject to claimant's right to renew his request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by April 4, 2019. Claimant filed a timely response to the appellant questionnaire. ALJ Kangas reviewed claimant's response, and on March 28, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-127189, re-dismissing claimant's request for hearing and concluding that claimant did not receive decision # 200723, but failed to file his request within a reasonable time period after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. On April 1, 2019, claimant filed a timely application for review of Order No. 18-UI-121763 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 19-UI-127189 is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date it is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. Here, the ALJ concluded that claimant established good cause to extend the 20-day filing deadline because he did not receive decision # 200723.¹ The ALJ also concluded that because claimant became aware of decision # 200723 during a conversation with the Department on May 9, 2017, he did not file a request for hearing within a reasonable amount of time after the circumstances that prevented a timely filing ceased to exist.² However, that finding is based on information contained in the Department's records about which the ALJ took notice. The ALJ did not identify in Order No. 19-UI-127189 which Department record was the source of the information, nor is that information immediately apparent or obtainable upon review of Department records. There is no evidence in the record to support the conclusion that claimant had a conversation with the Department on May 9, 2017, or if he did, that he became aware of the existence of decision # 200723 at that time. Nor was claimant given the opportunity to rebut evidence about any such conversation contained therein.

ORS 657.270 requires the ALJ to give all parties a reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing. That obligation necessarily requires the ALJ to ensure that the record developed at the hearing shows a full and fair inquiry into the facts necessary for consideration of all issues properly before the ALJ in a case. ORS 657.270(3); see accord Dennis v. Employment Division, 302 Or 160, 728 P2d 12 (1986). Because, the ALJ failed to develop the record necessary for a determination of whether claimant filed a request for hearing within a reasonable period after the circumstances that prevented a timely filing ceased to exist, Order No. 19-UI-127189 is reversed, and this matter is remanded.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-127189 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.
