

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0349

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On February 7, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant voluntarily left work without good cause (decision # 74151). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On March 19, 2019, ALJ Scott conducted a hearing at which the employer failed to appear, and on March 22, 2019, issued Order No. 19-UI-126944, concluding claimant voluntarily left work with good cause. On April 8, 2019, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

With its April 8, 2019 application for review, the employer submitted a “Request to Reopen” in which it asked EAB to reopen the hearing in order for the employer to participate. On April 22, 2019, the employer submitted a “Response to...Findings of Fact, 19-UI-126944” in which the employer presented new information that was not presented at hearing. The employer’s request and submission of new information regarding claimant’s work separation are construed as a request for consideration of the new information under OAR 471-041-0090(2). Under OAR 471-041-0090(2), such information may be considered if the party offering the information proves that “[f]actors or circumstances beyond the party’s reasonable control prevented the party from offering the information into evidence at the hearing.” OAR 471-041-0090(2).

In the employer’s request, its Human Resources Director asserted that she failed to appear at the March 19, 2019 hearing because “we were participating in an Unfair Labor Practice (ULP) hearing with our Corrections Deputy Association that was held on the same day.” However, the employer failed to explain why one employee’s need to attend that hearing prevented another person representing the employer from attending the hearing in this case and presenting the new information at that time. Nor did the employer explain why it apparently failed to request that the hearing be postponed to a day on which the Human Resources Director could participate. Without such explanations, there is no basis for concluding that the employer’s failure to appear at the hearing or, if necessary, a postponed hearing, and offer its information into evidence at that time arose from factors beyond the employer’s reasonable control. Accordingly, the employer’s request for consideration of new information is denied.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), Order No. 19-UI-126944 is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-126944 is affirmed.

D. P. Hettle and S. Alba;
J. S. Cromwell, not participating.
