

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0369

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On February 14, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant for misconduct (decision # 132653). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On March 12, 2019, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) served notice of a hearing scheduled for March 26, 2019. OAH mailed the notice to the employer at its address of record with the Department, a post office box located in a UPS store on Southeast Hawthorne Boulevard in Portland, Oregon. The employer's mailing address was on Northeast Sandy Boulevard in Portland. On March 26th, ALJ Murdock conducted a hearing at which employer failed to appear, and on March 29, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-127316 concluding that claimant's discharge was not for misconduct. On April 13, 2019, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 19-UI-127316 is reversed, and this matter remanded for another hearing and Order on whether the employer discharged claimant for misconduct.

In its application for review, the employer stated that it firmly disagreed with claimant's characterization of the events resulting in her discharge, and that it failed to appear at the March 26th hearing because the March 12th notice of hearing was mailed to the wrong address. The employer's statement is construed as a request for consideration of new information regarding claimant's discharge. Under OAR 471-041-0090(2) (October 29, 2006), such information may be considered when the party offering the information establishes that factors or circumstances beyond the party's reasonable control prevented the party from offering the information into evidence at the hearing.

In support of its request, the employer stated it notified the Department on multiple occasions before March 12th that its mailing address was the Northeast Sandy Boulevard address, and not the post office box on Southeast Hawthorne Boulevard. The Department's failure to change the employer's address of record to the Northeast Sandy Boulevard address was a factor or circumstance beyond the employer's reasonable control that prevented it from appearing at the March 26th hearing and offering information into evidence at that time. The employer's request for consideration of new information regarding claimant's discharge therefore is granted.

Order No. 19-UI-127316 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded to OAH for another hearing and Order on whether the employer discharged claimant for misconduct.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-127316 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

DATE of Service: April 19, 2019

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 19-UI-127316 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent Order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
