

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0649

Application for Review Dismissed

FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On August 26, 2014, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant willfully made a misrepresentation or failed to report a material fact to obtain benefits, and assessing 4 penalty weeks (decision # 195868). On September 15, 2014, decision # 195868 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On October 5, 2016, claimant filed a late request for hearing. On November 3, 2016, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for November 17, 2016, at which time claimant failed to appear. On November 18, 2016, ALJ Vincent issued Order No. 16-UI-71440, dismissing claimant's hearing request for failure to appear. On November 28, 2016, claimant filed a request to reopen with OAH. On December 6, 2016, ALJ Kangas reviewed claimant's request and issued Order No. 16-UI-72301, denying the request. On December 27, 2016, Order No. 16-UI-72301 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On July 11, 2019, claimant filed a late application for review with EAB.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The application for review should be dismissed.

On July 11, 2019, the appellant filed an application for review of Order No. 16-UI-72301 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the application for review to be filed no later than December 27, 2016, approximately two and one-half years earlier. The application for review was therefore late.

The filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). "Good cause" means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A "reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b).

Claimant wrote on the application for review that they did not file a timely application for review because "I never received my notice of the decision or the appeal process at the time," "was in school," and was "moving between living situations frequently." Under some circumstances, not receiving a decision due to moving between residences might amount to good cause. However, claimant knew that claimant had filed a request to reopen in November 2016, and therefore reasonably should have known to follow up about it when they did not hear a response to the reopen request within a reasonable period of time after filing it. Nothing in this record suggests that claimant was not aware of filing the request, or that it was beyond claimant's reasonable control to contact OAH or the Department for information about the status of the reopen request within a closer proximity to November 2016. Claimant did not establish "good cause" to extend the filing period in this case.

Even if claimant had established "good cause" to extend the filing period in this case due to the circumstances described in the request to reopen, the late application for review would still have to be denied because claimant did not establish that they acted within the seven-day "reasonable time" period allowed under OAR 471-041-0070. The applicable rule requires that claimant file a late application for review within seven days of the date the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. In this case, claimant did not identify the date upon which the circumstances that might have constituted good cause – not receiving the decision and moving between residences – ceased to exist. Claimant therefore did not meet the "reasonable time" requirement, and the late application for review must be dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed July 11, 2019 is dismissed. Order No. 16-UI-72301 remains undisturbed.
