

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0688

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On May 21, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant voluntarily left work without good cause (decision # 121639). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On June 5, 2019, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled on June 19, 2019 at 2:30 p.m. On June 19, 2019, claimant failed to appear at the hearing and ALJ Seideman issued Order No. 19-UI-131958, dismissing claimant's request for hearing because claimant failed to appear at the hearing. On June 24, 2019, claimant filed a timely request to reopen the June 19, 2019 hearing. On July 3, 2019, OAH mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for July 15, 2019 to consider claimant's request to reopen and, if the request was allowed, whether claimant was disqualified from the receipt of benefits based on her work separation. On July 15, 2019, ALJ M. Davis conducted a hearing at which the employer failed to appear and issued Order No. 19-UI-133330, allowing claimant's request to reopen and affirming decision # 121639 concluding that claimant voluntarily left work without good cause. On July 25, 2019, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EAB considered claimant's written argument in reaching this decision. Claimant asserted in her written argument that the ALJ "misunderstood some of [her] statements." Claimant's Written Argument. A careful review of the record shows that the ALJ's findings of fact reflect the record accurately and that the ALJ inquired fully into the matters at issue and gave claimant a reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing as required by ORS 657.270(3) and (4) and OAR 471-040-0025(1) (August 1, 2004). Claimant left work because her training coordinator made two unprofessional statements to claimant, causing claimant to feel uncomfortable, frustrated, and hesitant to ask more questions of the trainer. Claimant spoke with a human resources representative, and she gave claimant the reasonable alternative of completing her training on a computer. Although claimant had fallen behind in her training, the record does not show that the employer was dissatisfied with claimant's work performance, or that claimant faced any adverse employment consequences because of how she was performing during training. The record does not therefore show that claimant faced working conditions that were so grave that no reasonable and prudent person would continue working rather than continue to work with the support claimant received from human resources. Therefore, although claimant quit work for reasons that were important to her, on this record, EAB agrees with the Department and the ALJ that claimant quit work without “good cause” as that term is defined in Employment Department law.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-133330 is affirmed.
