

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0704

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On May 31, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant quit work without good cause (decision # 71205). On June 20, 2019, decision # 71205 became final without claimant having filed a timely request for hearing. On June 28, 2019, claimant filed a late request for hearing. On July 2, 2019, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 19-UI-132658, dismissing claimant's late request for hearing subject to her right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by July 16, 2019. On July 19, 2019, claimant filed a late response to the questionnaire and a timely application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On July 30, 2019, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider her late response. This matter is before EAB on claimant's timely application for review of Order No. 19-UI-132658.

EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: Claimant has medical issues that impair her vision and mobility. She has at all relevant times felt overwhelmed, in pain, and stressed. In that context, claimant misread the "Appeal Deadline Date" on decision # 71205 as June 30, 2019 instead of June 20, 2019. She filed her late request for hearing within the deadline as she misread it.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: This matter is remanded for a hearing on whether claimant had good cause for the late request for hearing.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The information claimant provided in her appellant questionnaire response about the factors that caused her to file a late request for hearing suggests equally that she might have had good cause to extend the filing period in this matter to June 30, 2019 because of her vision impairment, medical issues, and mental health, and that she might not have had good cause because the late filing was the result of human error. Due process requires that claimant be given an opportunity for a hearing to determine whether or not good cause existed. See also ORS 657.270(3); see accord Dennis v. Employment Division, 302 Or 160, 728 P2d 12 (1986). This matter is therefore remanded for a hearing on claimant’s late request for hearing.

Please note, the threshold issue on remand is whether claimant had good cause for the late request for hearing and filed the late request within a reasonable time. Only if claimant establishes that she did would she then become entitled to a hearing on the merits of decision # 71205.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-132658 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

J. S. Cromwell and S. Alba;
D. P. Hettle, not participating.

DATE of Service: August 9, 2019

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 19-UI-132658 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
