

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0798

Reversed
Late Request for Hearing Allowed
Merits Hearing Required

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 10, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served, by mail, notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was overpaid $295 in benefits that he must repay (decision # 95948). On July 1, 2019, decision # 95948 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On July 17, 2019, claimant filed a late request for hearing. On July 22, 2019, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 19-UI-133724, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late without a showing of good cause, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by filing a response to an appellant questionnaire within 14 days. On August 6, 2019, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire, and a timely application for review of Order No. 19-UI-133724 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 15, 2019, ALJ Kangas issued a letter stating that because claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire was filed late, it would not be considered, another order would not be issued, and Order No. 19-UI-133724 remained in effect.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB considered claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). Claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects the admission of EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On June 10, 2019, the Department mailed notice of decision # 95948 to claimant. Sometime after the Department mailed the decision, claimants' significant other picked up the mail and placed it on top of their refrigerator. EAB Exhibit 1. Claimant did not find the mail until July 12, 2019 when he was doing the monthly kitchen cleanup. Id.

(2) Claimant did not personally receive decision # 95948 until July 12, 2019 because his significant other misplaced the decision. EAB Exhibit 1. Claimant filed his request for hearing on July 17, 2019, five days after receiving the decision.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 95948 is allowed. Claimant is entitled to a hearing on the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

In this case, claimant filed his request for hearing late because his significant other misplaced the mail, and therefore he did not personally receive the decision until after the filing deadline. We infer from claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire that placing mail on top of the refrigerator was not the usual place where the parties placed their mail upon receipt. We also infer that claimant's significant other did not tell him she had placed mail on top of the refrigerator and that he had no reason to check for mail there. It was beyond claimant's reasonable control that his significant other placed the mail on top of the refrigerator, a place claimant only cleaned once per month. Claimant therefore established good cause to extend the filing deadline to July 17, 2019.

The remaining issue is whether claimant filed his request for hearing within a reasonable time. The circumstances that prevented claimant from filing a timely request for hearing ceased to exist on July 12, 2019, when he found the decision. Claimant filed his request for hearing on July 17, 2019, which is less than seven days after the circumstances that prevented a timely filing ceased to exist, and therefore within a reasonable time.

Claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 95948 is allowed. Claimant is entitled to a hearing on the merits of that decision.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-133724 is set aside, as outlined above.
