

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0813

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 2, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served, by mail, notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit working for the employer without good cause (decision # 115053). On July 22, 2017, decision # 115053 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. Claimant filed a late request for hearing on July 23, 2019. On July 29, 2019, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 19-UI-134122, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late without a showing of good cause, subject to claimant's right to renew his request by filing a response to an appellant questionnaire within 14 days. On August 16, 2019, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire, and a timely application for review of Order No. 19-UI-134122 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 22, 2019, ALJ Kangas issued a letter stating that because claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire was filed late, it would not be considered, another order would not be issued, and Order No. 19-UI-134122 remained in effect.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: Claimant did not receive decision # 115053 until July 22, 2019, because his grandchildren pick up his mail. EAB Exhibit 1. On July 22, 2019, claimant attempted to file a request for hearing via e-mail, but was unable to do so because the site he was trying to file on notified him that it was having intermittent difficulties. EAB Exhibit 1, Exhibit 2 at 3.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 19-UI-134122 is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 115053 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

In his appellant questionnaire response and request for hearing, claimant asserted that his request "was less than 6 hours late" and that he attempted to file a request for hearing on July 22, 2019 via e-mail, but was unable to do so because, "It kept saying that there were intermittent problems." EAB Exhibit 1, Exhibit 2 at 3. Claimant also asserted that he did not receive decision # 115053 until July 22, 2019 because "my grandchildren get the mail and I didn't receive the letter and notice ..." EAB Exhibit 1. The information claimant provided in his appellant questionnaire response and request for hearing about the factors that caused him to file a late request for hearing suggests that he might have had good cause to extend the filing period in this matter to July 23, 2019, due to factors beyond his reasonable control or excusable mistake. However, further inquiry is necessary to make that determination. Order No. 19-UI-134122 therefore is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 115053 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-134122 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

D. P. Hettle and S. Alba;
J. S. Cromwell, not participating.

DATE of Service: August 30, 2019

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. or 19-UI-134122 return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
