

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0962

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 23, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) issued notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant, not for misconduct, within 15 days of claimant's planned voluntary leaving without good cause, and that claimant was disqualified from receiving benefits effective October 14, 2018 (decision # 61029). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On August 27, 2019, ALJ Janzen conducted a hearing, and on August 29, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-135810, affirming decision # 61029. On September 10, 2019, claimant filed a timely application for review of that order with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

Claimant submitted written arguments to EAB with her September 10th application for review, on September 27th, and on October 7th. EAB did not consider any of claimant's arguments when reaching this decision because they did not include a statement declaring that they provided a copy of their argument to the opposing party or parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (May 13, 2019).

Even if we had considered claimant's arguments, the outcome of this decision would remain the same. Claimant's primary argument was essentially that she should receive benefits because her discharge was not for misconduct, and "[t]here is no proof whatsoever that intended to quit," she "never said I was quitting," and "[t]here is no written proof that I submitted a note that I was quitting." However, the record includes a statement that was more likely than not submitted by claimant, and stated, "Regretfully tend my designation. My 2 week notice as of tomorrow." Exhibit 1. The preponderance of the evidence is that claimant did in fact resign her job prior to being discharged. The order under review correctly concluded that claimant's discharge was not for misconduct, and claimant did not present any evidence at the hearing about why she planned to quit her job, or establish that the reason she quit amounted to "good cause" under Employment Department Law. The record therefore establishes that claimant was discharged, not for misconduct, within 15 days of her planned voluntary leaving without good cause. Claimant is therefore disqualified from receiving benefits based upon the voluntary leaving, effective October 14, 2019.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-135810 is affirmed.
