

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-0979

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On September 13, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant, not for misconduct (decision # 152544). The employer filed a timely request for hearing. On October 3, 2019, ALJ Frank conducted a hearing, and on October 4, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-137548, affirming the Department's decision. On October 10, 2019, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

The employer submitted a timely written argument. However, the employer's argument contained additional evidence that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control prevented them from offering the additional evidence into the hearing record. Under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only evidence received into the hearing record when reaching this decision.

Even if EAB had considered the employer's additional evidence, the outcome of this decision would remain the same. With the exception of Exhibit 6A, the employer's additional evidence corroborates uncontested facts that its witness testified to at the hearing and that were not contested. Exhibit 6A, in which claimant states that she thought her Child Protective Services cases discovered during her background check were closed due to the charges being unfounded, fails to show that she knew or should have known failing to provide the information discovered during her background check was willfully or wantonly negligent, and not the result of a good faith error. Nor does the evidence in the record support such a finding. Thus, even if the employer had discharged for failing to provide that information, and not because the Department of Human Services (DHS) revoked claimant's authorization to work,¹ claimant's discharge would not have been for misconduct.

¹ At hearing, employer's witness testified that claimant's was discharged because DHS revoked her authorization to work, and not due to claimant's failure to disclose the information discovered during her background check. Audio Record at 13:55 to 14:30.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-137548 is affirmed.
