

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-1006

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On December 23, 2016, the Department served notice of an administrative decision, assessing a $4,545.00 overpayment that claimant was required to repay, $1,363.50 monetary penalty, and 52 penalty weeks (decision # 193431). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On January 20, 2017, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for February 6, 2017. On February 6, 2017, ALJ Monroe conducted a hearing, and on February 10, 2017 issued Order No. 17-UI-76708, affirming decision # 193431. On March 2, 2017, Order No. 17-UI-76708 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with EAB. On October 18, 2019, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 17-UI-76708 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EAB did not consider claimant's written argument when reaching this decision because they did not include a statement declaring that they provided a copy of their argument to the opposing party or parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (May 13, 2019). Even if EAB had, the outcome of this case would remain the same for the reasons stated below.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The application for review of Order No. 17-UI-76708 is dismissed as untimely without a showing of good cause to extend the filing deadline.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that OAH mailed the decision for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20 day filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). "Good cause" means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A "reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

In this case, the application for review of Order No. 17-UI-76708 was due March 2, 2017. The appellant did not file her application for review until October 18, 2019. Although the appellant included a written statement with her application for review, that statement provided no explanation as to why the application was filed after the filing deadline expired, other than the fact that she did not understand at the time she chose not to appeal the order in 2017 that she would have to serve a 52 penalty week disqualification period in addition to repaying the Department for the overpayment and monetary penalty. Order No. 17-UI-76708 specifically assessed that penalty, however, and it was within claimant's reasonable control to read that decision and ensure that she understood the consequences of not appealing it in a timely manner. Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and her late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed October 18, 2019 is dismissed. Order No. 17-UI-76708 remains undisturbed.
