

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2019-EAB-1035

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On September 16, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant voluntarily left work without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective August 25, 2019 (decision # 123901). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On October 11, 2019, ALJ Monroe conducted a hearing, and on October 18, 2019 issued Order No. 19-UI-138366, concluding that there was no work separation and claimant was not disqualified from receiving benefits. On October 30, 2019, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record and the parties' written arguments.<sup>1</sup> On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 19-UI-138366 is affirmed.

J. S. Cromwell and D. P. Hettle;
S. Alba, not participating.

DATE of Service: November 27, 2019

NOTE: You may appeal this decision by filing a Petition for Judicial Review with the Oregon Court of Appeals within 30 days of the date of service listed above. See ORS 657.282. For forms and information, you may write to the Oregon Court of Appeals, Records Section, 1163 State Street, Salem,

---

<sup>1</sup> The employer's written argument questioned why claimant is eligible for benefits when she voluntarily reduced her hours, and why her benefits should be charged against the employer's account. EAB does not have jurisdiction to address either issue. The sole issue in this case is whether claimant had a disqualifying work separation, and, as explained in Order No. 19-UI-138366, the preponderance of the evidence establishes she did not. Whether claimant should be deemed ineligible for benefits because she was not available for work under ORS 657.155, or whether the employer is eligible to be relieved of charges under ORS 657.471 are separate issues for the Department to investigate and decide in the first instance. If the employer has information, or questions, about claimant's availability to work or whether the employer is eligible for relief of charges, the employer must direct those questions to the Department.
