

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2020-EAB-0194

Affirmed
Late Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 11, 2019, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision assessing a $367 overpayment, $110.10 monetary penalty, and 52 penalty weeks (decision # 193938). On May 1, 2019, decision # 193938 became final without claimant having filed a timely request for hearing.

On February 3, 2020, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas reviewed claimant's request for hearing, and on February 10, 2020, issued Order No. 20-UI-144182, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late without a showing of good cause, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 24, 2020. On February 28, 2020, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 20-UI-144182 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

On March 3, 2020, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that her questionnaire response was late, would not be considered, and that Order No. 20-UI-144182 remained in effect. This matter is before EAB based upon claimant's timely application for review of Order No. 20-UI-144182.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, which has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, EAB Exhibit 1 will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: Claimant received decision # 193938 "sometime in April" of 2019. She did not file a timely request for hearing because she was under "extreme mental distress" because of her mother's and her own health. Those circumstances ended at an unknown date thereafter, and claimant filed a late request for hearing on February 3, 2020.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant did not have good cause for her late request for hearing regarding decision # 193938.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date it is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, does not include "not understanding the implications of a decision or notice when it is received" and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

Claimant received decision # 193938 in April 2019, before the deadline for claimant to file a timely request for hearing on decision # 193938 expired on May 1, 2019. Claimant filed a request for a hearing more than nine months after the deadline, making her request late.

Claimant filed a late request for hearing because of her mother's and her own health issues, which might have amounted to good cause to extend the filing deadline. However, the deadline may only be extended by seven days after the circumstances that prevented a timely filing ceased to exist. Claimant did not provide any information with her request for hearing or in the appellant questionnaire establishing the date her "extreme mental distress" ended, and therefore did not establish that she filed her February 3, 2020 request for hearing within seven days of that date.

Absent evidence that claimant filed her late request for hearing within a "reasonable time" after the circumstances that had prevented a timely filing ceased to exist, claimant has not shown that the deadline for filing the request for hearing in this case may be extended. Claimant's late request for hearing is, therefore, dismissed.

DECISION: Order No. 20-UI-144182 is affirmed.
