

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2020-EAB-0292

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 1, 2015, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision assessing an $8,257 overpayment and $2,477.10 monetary penalty that claimant was required to repay, and 52 penalty weeks (decision # 200772). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On February 23, 2016, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed notice of a hearing scheduled for March 8, 2016. On March 8, 2016, ALJ Murdock conducted a hearing at which claimant and the Department appeared, and on March 15, 2016 issued Order No. 16-UI-55054, affirming decision # 200772. Order No. 16-UI-55054 stated that claimant must repay benefits in the amount of $8,257, plus a monetary penalty of $2,477.10, and that she was disqualified from 52 weeks of future benefits. Order No. 16-UI-55054 stated that any appeal of the order must be filed on or before April 4, 2016 to be timely. On April 4, 2016, Order No. 16-UI-55054 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On April 6, 2020, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 16-UI-55054 with EAB.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late application for review of Order No. 16-UI-55054 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that OAH mailed the decision for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20 day filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). "Good cause" means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A "reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 16-UI-55054 was due April 4, 2016. Because the appellant did not file her application for review until April 6, 2020, the application for review was late. Claimant provided a written statement with her application for review. However, that statement provided no explanation as to why claimant filed the application after the filing deadline, other than asserting that she knew she “lost the appeal” in 2016, but does not understand why, “after all this time,” that she has to claim 52 penalty weeks before she can receive unemployment insurance benefits. Order No. 16-UI-55054 specifically assessed the 52 penalty weeks, and it was within claimant’s reasonable control to read that decision and ensure that she understood the consequences of not appealing it in a timely manner. Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and her late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed April 6, 2020 is dismissed. Order No. 16-UI-55054 remains undisturbed.
