

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2020-EAB-0507

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On May 7, 2020 the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant left work without good cause, and disqualifying claimant from receiving benefits effective February 23, 2020 (decision # 64704). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On June 15, 2020, ALJ Williams conducted a hearing, and on June 17, 2020 issued Order No. 20-UI-151174, affirming the Department’s decision. On July 6, 2020, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EAB considered the employer’s written argument in its entirety. ALJ Williams affirmed the Department’s conclusion that claimant quit due to a reduction in pay. However, claimant has argued twice—in her request for hearing and in written argument she submitted after her application for review—that she quit because when the employer reduced her pay, they directed her to sign an updated offer letter that she believed to be fraudulent. At the hearing, claimant did not testify that she quit for this reason.

Claimant’s argument contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond her reasonable control prevented her from offering the information during the hearing. Under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision.

Even excepting this procedural concern, however, claimant has not set forth facts showing that the request to sign the new offer letter was a circumstance so grave that she had no reasonable alternative but to quit. Claimant argued, in essence, that the employer directed her to act unethically when they “told [her] to fraudulently” sign a back-dated offer letter to [her] start date of July 29, 2019.” While the updated offer letter from February 2020 did indicate a start date of July 29, 2019—instead of an accurate “start” date on which the employer would begin to pay her the reduced rate—nothing on the record suggests that this fact is evidence of the employer’s attempted fraud. As the employer would stand to gain no obvious benefit from backdating the start date on the new offer letter, the most reasonable inference here suggests that the July 2019 date was merely a typographical error. The employer's commission of such an error does not constitute gravity as defined in OAR 471-030-0038(4).

Based on a de novo review of the entire record in this case, and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the portion of the order under review concluding that claimant left work without good cause is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 20-UI-151174 is affirmed.
