

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2020-EAB-0573

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 22, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant had been receiving retirement pay in an amount greater than or equal to her weekly benefit amount, and that she was disqualified from receipt of benefits from March 29, 2020 through June 6, 2020 and until the reason for the denial ended (decision # 154227). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On July 20, 2020, ALJ Shoemake conducted a hearing, and on July 22, 2020 issued Order No. 20-UI-152445, affirming decision # 154227. On August 4, 2020, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EAB considered claimant's written argument in its entirety when reaching this decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Claimant worked for Southern Oregon Educational Service District (the employer) as a substitute teacher until she was laid off due to the COVID-19 pandemic on March 17, 2020.

(2) Claimant filed her initial application for benefits on April 1, 2020, which established a base year of January 1, 2019 through December 31, 2019 and a weekly benefit amount (WBA) of $193.00.

(3) Claimant claimed weekly benefits each week from March 29, 2020 through June 6, 2020 (the weeks at issue). During that time, claimant received $2,459.23 per month from a PERS retirement pension. The pension was maintained by or contributed to by the employer, which is a base year employer. Claimant's pension payments were $567.51 per week when prorated on a weekly basis.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant is disqualified from benefits.

ORS 657.205(1) provides that "...an individual is disqualified for benefits for any week with respect to which the individual is receiving, will receive, or has received a governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or other similar periodic payment based on the previous work of the individual, if payment is received under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base year employer of the individual. ORS 657.205(5) provides that “If under this section the remuneration and payments, or the pro rata share thereof, in any week are less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter for such week, such individual is entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration and payments.”

In short, if during a week in which they have claimed benefits a claimant has received pension payments from a plan maintained by or contributed to by an employer in the base year used to establish their claim; and if those payments equal or exceed the claimant’s WBA, the claimant is disqualified from benefits for that week. Both claimant and the Department’s witness testified that claimant received such payments during the weeks at issue, and that those payments were paid by a fund (PERS) to which the employer contributed.

During her testimony and in her written argument, claimant correctly identified an exception to this type of disqualification:

(3) An individual is not disqualified for benefits and the director may not reduce benefits under this section to an individual who:

- (a) If otherwise eligible, is entitled to benefits for any week;
- (b) Is a dislocated worker who has been terminated as a result of any permanent closure of or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility or enterprise; and
- (c) Elects to receive a payment referred to in subsection (1) of this section in a lump sum.

ORS 657.205(3) (emphasis added).

In order to avail herself of this exception, however, claimant must meet all three requirements under subsection (3). As claimant testified at the hearing, she did not elect to receive her pension payment as a lump sum. Audio record at 12:55. EAB does not need to reach a further conclusion as to whether or not claimant is considered a “dislocated worker.” Since claimant does not meet the lump-sum requirement, she does not meet all three requirements under subsection (3). ORS 657.205(3) therefore does not apply to claimant’s circumstances, and she is disqualified from receipt of benefits due to her periodic pension payments.

DECISION: Order No. 20-UI-152445 is affirmed.
