

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2020-EAB-0592

Late Application for Review Dismissed
No Disqualification

FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 13, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant for misconduct and claimant was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective December 15, 2019 (decision # 73321). On March 30, 2020, claimant filed a timely request for hearing. The Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) was not aware that claimant filed a request for hearing on March 30, 2020, and on April 2, 2020, considered decision # 73321 to have become final. On April 3, 2020, claimant filed another request for hearing. On April 17, 2020, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 20-UI-148350, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late without a showing of good cause, subject to his right to renew his request by filing a response to an appellant questionnaire by May 1, 2020. On May 3, 2020, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire. On May 15, 2020, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that because claimant's response to the questionnaire was late, OAH would not consider it or issue another order, and that Order No. 20-UI-148350 remained in effect.

On May 19, 2020, OAH mailed claimant a letter stating that OAH became aware that claimant filed a timely request for hearing on March 30, 2020, and that Order No. 20-UI-148350 was cancelled and vacated, and served notice of a hearing for May 27, 2020 on the merits of decision # 73321. On May 27, 2020, ALJ Murdock conducted a hearing at which the employer failed to appear, and issued Order No. 20-UI-150436, concluding the employer discharged claimant not for misconduct, and claimant was not disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits. On June 18, 2020, Order No. 20-UI-150436 became final without the employer having filed a timely application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On June 24, 2020, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 20-UI-150436 with EAB.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's application for review of Order No. 20-UI-150436 presents no justiciable controversy and should be dismissed.

On June 24, 2020, the Employment Appeals Board (EAB) received from claimant an application for review of an order that allowed the appellant benefits. Claimant did not assign error to any portion of that order, did not request reversal of any portion of the order, and alleged no facts entitling claimant to further relief in this matter. Accordingly, there is no justiciable controversy before EAB based upon claimant's application for review. See accord Barcik v. Kubiacyk, 321 Or 174, 895 P2d 765 (1995). Because the case before us presents no justiciable controversy, the application for review of Order No. 20-UI-150436 is dismissed and Order No. 20-UI-150436 remains undisturbed.

Moreover, even had claimant presented a justiciable controversy in his application for review, the application must be dismissed because it was late. An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that OAH mailed the decision for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). "Good cause" means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A "reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 20-UI-150436 was due June 18, 2020. Because claimant did not file his application for review until June 24, 2020, the application for review was late. Claimant's application for review did not include a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented claimant from filing the application for review by the June 18, 2020 deadline. Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for the late application for review, and claimant's late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed June 24, 2020 is dismissed. Order No. 20-UI-150436 remains undisturbed.
