

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2020-EAB-0610

Affirmed
Ineligible Weeks 13-20 through 22-20

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On May 27, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant was disqualified from receiving benefits from March 22, 2020 through March 20, 2021 because claimant was or would be receiving retirement pay that would be equal to or exceed claimant's weekly benefit amount (decision # 64240). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On August 27, 2020, ALJ S. Lee conducted a hearing, and on September 2, 2020 issued Order No. 20-UI-153583, modifying the Department's decision by concluding claimant was ineligible to receive benefits from March 22 through May 30, 2020 (weeks 13-20 through 22-20) because claimant received retirement pay that was equal to or exceeded claimant's weekly benefit amount for those weeks. On September 14, 2020, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: Claimant submitted a written argument with their application for review. Claimant's argument contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond claimant's reasonable control prevented them from offering the information during the hearing. Under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision.

However, even if EAB had considered claimant's argument on review, the outcome of this decision would not have changed. The substance of claimant's argument before EAB is the same as the argument claimant made at hearing before the ALJ; it is unfair for claimant's weekly benefit amount to be offset by claimant's periodic PERS retirement payments because her base year employers never contributed to her individual PERS retirement account. ORS 657.205 is clear that all that is required for the offset to apply is that the retirement payment be "received under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base year employer of the individual." The statute does not require a base year employer of an individual to have contributed to the retirement account of the individual for the offset to apply. Here, the order under review correctly applied the law to the facts and modified decision # 64240 only by changing the weeks at issue.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 20-UI-153583 is affirmed.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> This denial is confined to claimant’s disqualification from regular unemployment insurance benefits under Order No. 20-UI-153583 under the circumstances set forth in this case. However, claimant might be eligible for benefits under one of the Department’s other unemployment insurance benefit programs, which are specifically intended as income replacement for individuals unemployed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. If the parties have questions about benefits or eligibility for alternative benefit programs, they may contact the Department; the Department’s “Contact Us” form is available at: <https://unemployment.oregon.gov/contact-us>.
