2020-EAB-0611

Late Applications for Review Dismissed Without Prejudice

FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On November 9, 2017, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding the employer discharged claimant for misconduct, disqualifying claimant from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective August 20, 2017 (decision # 113914). On November 9, 2017, the Department also served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant was not available for work during the weeks from October 22 through November 4, 2017 and was ineligible for benefits for those weeks and until the reason for the denial had ended (decision # 110140). On November 29, 2017, decisions # 113914 and 110140 became final without claimant having filed timely requests for hearing.

On January 30, 2018, claimant filed late requests for hearing on decisions # 113914 and 110140. On February 5, 2018, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 18-UI-102512, dismissing claimant's request for hearing on decision # 113914 as late subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 19, 2018. On February 5, 2018, ALJ Kangas also issued Order No. 18-UI-102515, dismissing claimant's request for hearing on decision # 110140 as late subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 19, 2018. On February 26, 2018, Orders No. 18-UI-102512 and 18-UI-102515 became final without claimant having filed timely applications for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On September 6, 2020, claimant filed late applications for review of Orders No. 18-UI-102512 and 18-UI-102515 with EAB.

Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Orders No. 18-UI-102512 and 18-UI-102515. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in duplicate (EAB Decisions 2020-EAB-0611 and 2020-EAB-0612).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The applications for review of Orders No. 18-UI-102512 and 18-UI-102515 should be dismissed without prejudice.

On September 6, 2020, the appellant filed applications for review of Orders No. 18-UI-102512 and 18-UI-102515 with EAB. ORS 657.270(6) and ORS 657.270(7)(b) required the applications for review to be filed no later than February 26, 2018. The appellant's applications for review are therefore late, and the applications for review are dismissed.

The deadline for filing an application for review may be extended a reasonable time upon a showing of good cause. See ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070. If the appellant believes they have good cause and filed their late applications for review within a reasonable time, the appellant may request that EAB reconsider this decision under OAR 471-041-0145.

EAB will dismiss any request for reconsideration that does not include all five of the following:

1. The appellant must file the request for reconsideration within 20 days of the date this decision was mailed; the date this decision was mailed is September 21, 2020, making the deadline October 11, 2020, and
2. The appellant must include a statement on the request for reconsideration declaring that they sent a copy of the request to the other party, and
3. The appellant must provide additional specific details about the reason they filed late applications for review. For example, the appellant should include specific information about the date they received the ALJ's orders, whether they read them, whether they agreed or disagreed with the ALJ's orders, the reason(s) why they did not file the applications for review before the deadline, whether they or their families were ill or quarantined around the deadline, whether they could not file timely applications for review for any other reason(s) not related to illness or quarantine, how that affected their ability to file timely applications for review, and any other specific details that might help EAB determine whether or not the appellant had "good cause," which means factors or circumstances beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing timely applications for review, and
4. The appellant must provide the date the circumstances that prevented them from filing timely applications for review (which they listed in response to #3, above) ceased to exist, and
5. The appellant must provide sufficient information to prove that they filed their applications for review within seven days of that date.

The appellant may file a request for reconsideration in many ways; please note that you need only file one request for reconsideration:

1. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to fill out the "File a Written Argument" form, available on EAB's website: <https://www.oregon.gov/EMPLOY/EAB/Pages/default.aspx>, or
2. Use your smart phone, tablet, or computer to send an email to EAB at OED_EAB_OFFICE@oregon.gov, or
3. Send the request by U.S. mail or another delivery service, addressed to 875 Union St NE, Salem, Oregon 97311, or
4. Send EAB a fax at 503-378-2129.

DECISION: The applications for review filed September 6, 2020 are dismissed without prejudice. Orders No. 18-UI-102512 and 18-UI-102515 remain undisturbed.
