WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's written argument in reaching this decision.

ARGUMENTO POR ESCRITO: EAB consideró el argumento por escrito del reclamante en llegar a esta decisión.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On October 7, 2020, OAH mailed claimant at his address of record notice of a hearing scheduled for October 21, 2020. Claimant received the notice of hearing.

(2) On October 13, 2020, claimant contacted OAH by telephone and asked that it reschedule the hearing. OAH told claimant that his hearing was rescheduled to October 27, 2020 at 10:45 a.m. On October 13, 2020, OAH mailed notice of the change to the notice of hearing, stating that it was rescheduled to October 27, 2020 at 10:45 a.m. Claimant received the change to the notice of hearing before the October 27, 2020 hearing.

(3) Claimant usually programmed important appointments in his cell phone to remind him the day before the appointment. However, claimant forgot to program the new hearing date and time in his cell phone and on October 27, 2020, forgot about the hearing.

(4) On October 28, 2020, claimant realized that he had missed the October 27, 2020 hearing. On November 5, 2020, claimant filed a motion to reopen the October 27, 2020 hearing.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's request to reopen is denied. La aplicación del reclamante para reabrir la audiencia es negada.

ORS 657.270(5) provides that any party who failed to appear at a hearing may request to reopen the hearing, and the request will be allowed if it was filed within 20 days of the date the hearing decision was issued and shows good cause for failing to appear. “Good cause” exists when the requesting party’s failure to appear at the hearing arose from an excusable mistake or from factors beyond the party’s reasonable control. OAR 471-040-0040(2) (February 10, 2012).

Claimant explained that he failed to appear at the October 27, 2020 hearing due to “human error,” because he did not program the hearing appointment in his telephone and forgot about the hearing on October 27. Transcript at 5. However, claimant did not assert that he forgot to attend the hearing due to factors beyond his reasonable control. Nor does the record show that claimant took precautions to ensure that he would not forget the hearing, such as setting a reminder in his telephone, writing it on a calendar, or checking his “papers” on his desk to remind himself of the upcoming hearing date. Transcript at 6-7. Although claimant’s failure to appear at the hearing was a mistake, it was not an “excusable” mistake within the meaning of the administrative rules because it did not, for example, raise a due process issue, and apparently was not the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply. Claimant therefore failed to establish good cause for failing to appear at the hearing.

For these reasons, claimant’s request to reopen the October 27, 2020 hearing is denied.

DECISION: Order No. 20-UI-157078 is affirmed. La Orden de la Audiencia 20-UI-157078 queda confirmada.
