

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2020-EAB-0803

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 13, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was denied unemployment insurance benefits for the period from February 23, 2020 through February 29, 2020 and until the reason for the denial had ended because claimant had not registered following the rules set by the Department. On April 2, 2020, the March 13, 2020 decision became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On August 11, 2020, claimant filed a late request for hearing. On September 17, 2020, ALJ Kangas issued Order No. 20-UI-154070 dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by October 1, 2020.

On October 3, 2020, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 20-UI-154070 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On December 22, 2020, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that because claimant's response to the questionnaire was late, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider it or issue another order, and Order No. 20-UI-154070 remained in effect. This matter is before EAB based upon claimant's timely application for review of Order No. 20-UI-154070.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 into the record must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On March 13, 2020, the Department mailed a decision to claimant's address on file with the Department. The decision stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than 04/02/2020." Exhibit 1.

(2) On August 11, 2020, claimant sent an email to the Department requesting a hearing. Exhibit 2.

(3) In claimant's questionnaire response regarding Order No. 20-UI-154070, received by OAH on October 3, 2020, claimant explained that "if he didn't" file his request for hearing before the deadline stated in the decision, it was "because [he] moved." EAB Exhibit 1. Claimant also explained that he "got [his] mail from [his] old address late," and that he "moved and wasn't expecting it." EAB Exhibit 1.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 20-UI-154070 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further development of the record.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing regarding the March 13, 2020 decision was April 2, 2020. Claimant did not file a timely hearing request regarding that decision by that date. However, the record suggests that the 20-day deadline to file a request for hearing may be extended in this case because claimant may have filed his request for hearing late due to circumstances beyond his control. The circumstances beyond claimant's control that may have prevented him from filing his request for hearing in a timely manner were that he moved from his address of record with the Department without having expected a decision would be mailed to that address, and his subsequent failure to receive the March 13, 2020 decision. However, additional evidence is needed to determine whether or not claimant had good cause for extending the deadline to request a hearing, and if so, whether claimant filed the late request for hearing within a reasonable time after those circumstances ceased to exist. If claimant's request for hearing is allowed, an inquiry into the merits of the March 13, 2020 decision needs to be conducted.

Order No. 2020-UI-154070 therefore is reversed, and this matter is remanded.

DECISION: Order No. 20-UI-154070 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Alba and D. P. Hettle.

DATE of Service: December 30, 2020

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 20-UI-154070 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
