EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0007

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 22, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant did not have sufficient hours and earnings in her base year to qualify for unemployment insurance benefits. Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On November 30, 2020, ALJ Monroe conducted a hearing, and on December 11, 2020 issued Order No. 20-UI-157595, affirming the October 22, 2020 administrative decision. On December 31, 2020, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: This matter is set aside as unsupported by a complete record, and remanded to the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) for another hearing on whether claimant had sufficient hours and earnings in her base year to qualify for unemployment insurance benefits.

ORS 657.275 provides that EAB shall review the record of the case and promptly affirm, modify, or set aside the order of the ALJ if the Director of the Department or any interested party files a timely application for review. However, the order under review is based on an incomplete record, and a remand hearing is required.

The order under review asserted that, while the hearing record had been held open until December 3, 2020 to permit claimant to submit documentation to support her request to add wages and hours to her base year, OAH had not received any such documentation from claimant as of December 11, 2020, the date the order was issued. Order No. 20-UI-157595 at 1, FN1. However, claimant indicated in her written argument that she e-mailed “the information requested regarding [her] wages from April 1, 2019 to February 21, 2020” to the Department and OAH on December 2, 2020. Claimant’s Written Argument at 2. Although claimant attached to her written argument screenshots of the e-mail to which the requested documents were attached, claimant did not provide those documents to EAB. Claimant’s Written Argument at 3–4. EAB therefore is unable to determine what effect, if any, the documents may have on claimant’s claim determination. Another hearing on what effect they have on claimant’s claim determination therefore is required.

Claimant should re-submit her documents to the ALJ and the Department prior to the remand hearing by follow the instructions on the notice of the remand hearing regarding documents parties wish to have considered at the hearing. These instructions will direct the parties to provide copies of such documents to the ALJ and the other parties in advance of the hearing at their addresses as shown on the certificate of mailing for the notice of hearing.

DECISION: Order No. 20-UI-157595 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Alba and D. P. Hettle.

DATE of Service: February 2, 2021

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 20-UI-157595 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
