

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0063

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On November 30, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit working for the employer without good cause and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective July 19, 2020 (decision # 85829). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On January 15, 2021, ALJ Snyder conducted a hearing, and on January 19, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-159331, affirming decision # 85829. On January 27, 2021, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: Claimant's argument contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond claimant's reasonable control prevented them from offering the information during the hearing. Under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) The employer, the City of Tigard, employed claimant as a recreation coordinator from May 2019 until July 24, 2020.

(2) In April 2020, claimant applied for a recreation and facilities manager job with the City of Battle Ground.

(3) On May 20, 2020, after successfully completing a background and reference check, the City of Battle Ground offered claimant the position for which she had applied. The job was a permanent position and was to pay an annual salary greater than the annual salary she earned from the employer. However, the job's start date was "to commence when recreational and rental facilities [we]re operating on a consistent basis," which the City of Battle Ground estimated would be early to mid-August. Exhibit 1 at 4, City of Battle Ground Letter of Appointment.

(4) On May 29, 2020, claimant gave the employer notice that she was leaving work to accept the offer of work with the City of Battle Ground. Claimant informed the employer that her last day would be July 24, 2020.

(5) Near the end of July 2020, the City of Battle Ground informed claimant that her start date was still not definite, but would likely be nearer to late August 2020, because the facilities were not yet operating on a consistent basis.

(6) On July 24, 2020, claimant left work with the employer. As of that date, claimant did not have a definite date to start working for the City of Battle Ground.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant voluntarily left work without good cause.

A claimant who leaves work voluntarily is disqualified from the receipt of benefits unless they prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that they had good cause for leaving work when they did. ORS 657.176(2)(c); Young v. Employment Department, 170 Or App 752, 13 P3d 1027 (2000). A claimant who leaves work to accept an offer of other work “has left work with good cause only if the offer is definite and the work is to begin in the shortest length of time as can be deemed reasonable under the individual circumstances. Furthermore, the offered work must reasonably be expected to continue, and must pay [either] an amount equal to or in excess of the weekly benefit amount; or an amount greater than the work left.” OAR 471-030-0038(5)(a).

Claimant quit working for the employer to accept an offer of other work with the City of Battle Ground. The job offer from the City of Battle Ground was not definite because the date claimant was to start the new job was contingent upon the City of Battle Ground’s recreational and rental facilities operating on a consistent basis. Although the City of Battle Ground provided claimant with general estimates of when the job was to start, at no point prior to claimant’s departure from the employer did claimant receive a definite date to start working for the City of Battle Ground. Thus, the record shows that claimant’s offer of work for the City of Battle Ground was not definite, and for that reason claimant’s voluntary leaving of work for the employer to accept the offer of other work was without good cause.

Claimant voluntarily quit work without good cause, and is disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective July 19, 2020.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-159331 is affirmed.
