

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0109

Affirmed
Ineligible Weeks 41-20 through 50-20

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 22, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not available for work from October 4, 2020 until the reason for the denial had ended, because claimant was outside of the United States for more than half of the period claimed, and was therefore not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits (decision # 74339). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On January 22, 2021, ALJ S. Lee conducted a hearing, and on January 26, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-159735, modifying decision # 74339 by concluding that claimant was not available for work and therefore not eligible to receive benefits from October 4, 2020, through December 12, 2020 (weeks 41-20 through 50-20). On February 16, 2021, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB considered claimant's written argument. In the argument, claimant asserted that, although he spent weeks 41-20 through 50-20 in Taiwan, he should have been deemed eligible for benefits because Taiwan was his normal labor market area, and "ORS 657.155(1)(a) and (b) provides that an applicant is eligible as long as the applicant remains in their 'normal labor market area.'" Written Argument at 1. Claimant contended that to deem him not available for work based on his presence in Taiwan contradicts ORS 657.155(1) and constitutes improper exclusion from benefits based on geography. Written Argument at 1.

Contrary to claimant's argument, neither ORS 657.155(1)(a) nor (b) make any mention of an individual's "normal labor market area." Rather, the relevant portion of the statute for purposes of claimant's eligibility for benefits is ORS 657.155(1)(c), which requires that to be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits, an individual must be, among other things, "available for work." ORS 657.155(1)(c). What constitutes being "available for work" is not specified in ORS Chapter 657. The concept is elaborated upon in OAR 471-030-0036 (August 2, 2020 through December 26, 2020). Subsection (3)(i) of that administrative rule offers a definition that is dispositive in this case. An individual is not considered "available for work" in any week in which the individual spent the major portion of the week outside of the United States unless the individual spent the major portion of the week: (1) in Canada and was authorized to work in Canada, or (2) in a country included in the Compact of Free Association with the United States of America. As claimant spent weeks 41-20 through 50-20 in Taiwan and Taiwan is not Canada or a country included in the Compact of Free Association with the United States of America, claimant was not “available for work” as that term is given meaning by OAR 471-030-0036(3)(i). Order No. 21-UI-159735 correctly so concluded, and for that reason is being adopted by this decision. To the extent claimant’s argument was intended to assert a theory that OAR 471-030-0036(3)(i) is inconsistent with ORS 657.155(1)(c), EAB views the administrative rule as a provision that may be read in harmony with the statute.

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-159735 is affirmed.

S. Alba and D. P. Hettle.
