

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0148

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 11, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant was denied unemployment insurance benefits from July 19, 2020 through September 5, 2020, a break between academic years, because claimant was likely to return to work for her educational employer after the break and claimant's wages or hours with other employers were not sufficient to entitle claimant to benefits during the break (decision # 120720). On December 31, 2020, decision # 120720 became final without claimant having filed a timely request for hearing.

On January 7, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # 120720. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on January 21, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-159477, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 4, 2021. On February 9, 2021, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-159477 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On March 1, 2021, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that because claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire was late, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider it or issue another order, and that Order No. 21-UI-159477 remained in effect. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-159477.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 21-UI-159477 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 120720 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

Claimant's request for hearing on decision # 120720 was due by December 31, 2020. Because they did not file their request for hearing until January 7, 2021, the request was late. In their request for hearing, claimant indicated that they "got a letter in December 2020 about a denial of benefits." Exhibit 2 at 2. In their appellant questionnaire response, however, claimant indicated that decision # 120720 was misdelivered to their neighbor, and that they did not receive it until "sometime in January [2021]," when their neighbor brought it to them. EAB Exhibit 1.

If decision # 120720 was initially delivered to the wrong address and claimant did not receive the decision after the timely filing deadline, claimant may have missed the timely filing deadline due to factors beyond their control. However, further inquiry is needed to determine when claimant actually received or was otherwise made aware of decision # 120720, what other factors, if any, may have prevented claimant from filing a timely request for hearing on decision # 120720, and whether claimant filed her request for hearing within a reasonable time (seven days) after any such factors ceased to exist.

Order No. 21-UI-159477 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed and, if so, the merits of decision # 120720.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-159477 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Alba and D. P. Hettle.

DATE of Service: March 10, 2021

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 21-UI-159477 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
