

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0151

Affirmed
Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On January 12, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit work for the employer without good cause and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective November 15, 2020 (decision # 112947). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On February 18, 2021, ALJ Snyder conducted a hearing, and on February 19, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-161311, affirming decision # 112947. On March 1, 2021, claimant filed an application for review of Order No. 21-UI-161311 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: Claimant did not declare that they provided a copy of their argument to the opposing party or parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (May 13, 2019). The argument also contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond claimant's reasonable control prevented them from offering the information during the hearing as required by OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019). EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. See ORS 657.275(2).

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Columbia Brands USA LLC employed claimant as a sales associate from October 2019 until November 21, 2020.

(2) In 2020, claimant enrolled in school at the University of Oregon. During the fall semester, claimant attended school remotely while continuing her employment and living at home with her parents. However, claimant decided that beginning with the next semester, claimant would attend school in Eugene, Oregon and live in the dormitories on campus.

(3) In early November 2020, claimant notified the employer that she intended to move to Eugene to attend school during the upcoming semester, and that her last day of work would be November 21, 2020.

(4) On November 21, 2020, claimant quit work to attend school in Eugene, Oregon beginning in January 2021. Claimant was not required by law to attend school.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant voluntarily left work without good cause.

A claimant who leaves work voluntarily is disqualified from the receipt of benefits unless they prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that they had good cause for leaving work when they did. ORS 657.176(2)(c); Young v. Employment Department, 170 Or App 752, 13 P3d 1027 (2000). “Good cause . . . is such that a reasonable and prudent person of normal sensitivity, exercising ordinary common sense, would leave work.” OAR 471-030-0038(4) (September 22, 2020). “[T]he reason must be of such gravity that the individual has no reasonable alternative but to leave work.” OAR 471-030-0038(4). The standard is objective. McDowell v. Employment Department, 348 Or 605, 612, 236 P3d 722 (2010). A claimant who quits work must show that no reasonable and prudent person would have continued to work for their employer for an additional period of time.

Per OAR 471-030-0038(5)(b), leaving work without good cause includes:

* * *

(D) Leaving to attend school, unless required by law . . .

* * *

Claimant quit work with the employer on November 21, 2020 to attend school at the University of Oregon in Eugene, Oregon beginning in January 2021. Although claimant’s personal decision to do so may have been a reasonable one for her, claimant was not required by law to attend school. Accordingly, under OAR 471-030-0038(5)(b)(D), claimant quit work when she did without good cause and is disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective November 15, 2020 and until she earns at least four times her weekly benefit amount from work in subject employment.
