

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0159

Affirmed
Late Request for Hearing Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On November 5, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit work without good cause and was disqualified from receiving benefits effective December 15, 2019 (decision # 125819). On November 25, 2020, decision # 125819 became final without claimant having filed a timely request for hearing. On December 29, 2020, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # 125819. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on January 13, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-159080, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by January 27, 2021. On January 29, 2021, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-159080 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On March 3, 2021, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's January 29, 2021 application for review of Order No. 21-UI-159080.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of claimant's January 29, 2021 response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On November 5, 2020, the Department mailed decision # 125819 to claimant's address on file with the Department. Decision # 125819 stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than November 25, 2020." Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) In early- to mid-November 2020, claimant received decision # 125819.¹ On December 29, 2020, claimant requested a hearing on decision # 125819. The request for hearing included an explanation that claimant filed their appeal late because they had been told that they could apply for Pandemic Unemployment Insurance (PUA) after they had been denied regular benefits. Exhibit 2 at 2.

(3) On January 29, 2021, claimant mailed a late response to the appellant questionnaire. In their response, claimant stated that their appeal was filed after the deadline because they had applied for other types of benefits, and did not file their request for hearing until after those applications were denied. EAB Exhibit 1 at 2.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late request for hearing is dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

Claimant explained on their appellant questionnaire response that after the Department notified claimant that they had been denied benefits, they applied for PUA in Oregon as well as for benefits in California, both of which had been advised by the Department; and that claimant filed their request for hearing on decision # 125819 only after both of those applications had been denied. EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. Claimant did not indicate that the Department had advised them to wait to file their hearing request until after those applications had been denied. Claimant also has not offered any information to suggest that they were unable to file their request for hearing until after the other applications had been denied.

Although claimant's apparent belief that they were required to wait for a denial of other benefits before filing their request for hearing was likely the result of a mistake on claimant's part, it was not an "excusable mistake" within the meaning of the administrative rules because it did not, for example, raise a due process issue, and was not the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply.

Therefore, claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 125819 is subject to dismissal under ORS 657.875 and OAR 471-040-0010.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-159080 is affirmed.

DATE of Service: March 10, 2021

¹ Claimant indicated on their appellant questionnaire response that they received the decision on November 5, 2020. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. As the decision was mailed from Oregon to claimant's California address on the same date, claimant's statement here is likely inaccurate. However, claimant has not otherwise indicated that they received the decision later than the timely appeal deadline, and as such they are presumed to have received it a typical amount of time after it was mailed. See ORS 40.135(1)(q) (A letter duly directed and mailed is received in the regular course of the mail).

NOTE: You may appeal this decision by filing a Petition for Judicial Review with the Oregon Court of Appeals within 30 days of the date of service listed above. See ORS 657.282.
