

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0178

Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On January 13, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged for misconduct, disqualifying claimant from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective November 29, 2020 (decision # 142447). The employer filed a timely request for hearing. On February 10, 2021, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) served notice of a hearing scheduled for February 23, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. On February 23, 2021, the employer failed to appear for the hearing, and ALJ Demarest issued Order No. 21-UI-161490, dismissing the employer's request for hearing because the employer failed to appear. On March 9, 2021, claimant filed a timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-161490 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1)(a) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence consists of a document claimant offered at hearing, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: EAB did not consider claimant's written argument when reaching this decision because she did not include a statement declaring that she provided a copy of her argument to the opposing party or parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (May 13, 2019).

The parties may offer new information into evidence at the remand hearing. At that time, it will be determined if the new information will be admitted into the record. The parties must follow the instructions on the notice of the remand hearing regarding documents they wish to have considered at the hearing. These instructions will direct the parties to provide copies of such documents to the ALJ and the other parties in advance of the hearing at their addresses as shown on the certificate of mailing for the notice of hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Decision # 142447 stated, “You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than February 2, 2021.” Decision # 142447 at 2.

(2) On January 28, 2021, claimant called the Department and the Department representative told claimant that the employer had requested a hearing, and that, “[the representative] could see that [claimant] had also filled out the request for hearing form.” EAB Exhibit 1.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: This matter is remanded for a hearing and order on whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 142447, or a late request for hearing on decision # 142447 that should be allowed, and if so, the merits of decision # 142447.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department’s decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that “good cause” includes factors beyond an applicant’s reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines “reasonable time” as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. ORS 657.270(7)(a)(C) provides that the administrative law judge may dismiss a request for hearing if the requesting party fails to appear at the time of the hearing.

The employer filed a timely request for hearing regarding decision # 142447, but failed to appear at the hearing. For that reason, Order No. 21-UI-161490 dismissed the employer’s request for hearing. However, ORS 657.275 states that EAB may address issues raised by evidence in the record, and that if the EAB finds that additional evidence is required to reach a decision, it may remand the matter to the ALJ to conduct a hearing to obtain additional evidence in the matter.

Here, the record under review raises the issue of whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 142447 that the Department failed to refer to OAH. In a letter dated February 17, 2021, claimant asserted that she called the Department on January 28, 2021 and that the Department representative told claimant that “she could see [that claimant] had also filled out the request for a hearing form.” EAB Exhibit 1. Further discussion regarding claimant’s request for hearing occurred at the time of the hearing, but claimant’s statements were not provided under oath, and are therefore insufficient to determine whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing and, if not, whether she had good cause for failing to do so and filed a late request within a reasonable time. If the ALJ concludes that claimant filed a request for hearing that should be allowed, the ALJ must then develop a record on the issue of whether claimant is disqualified from receiving benefits based on her work separation from the employer.

Because further development of the record is necessary for a determination of whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing decision # 142447, or a late request for hearing that should be allowed, this matter is remanded for another hearing and order.

DECISION: This matter is remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Alba and D. P. Hettle.

DATE of Service: March 31, 2021

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
