

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0211

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 24, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged for misconduct, disqualifying claimant from receiving benefits effective July 26, 2020 (decision # 61825). On January 13, 2021, decision # 61825 became final without claimant having filed a timely request for hearing. On January 19, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # 61825.

ALJ Kangas reviewed claimant's request, and on February 9, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-160637, dismissing claimant's request for hearing as late without a showing of good cause, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 23, 2021. On February 24, 2021, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-160637 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On March 9, 2021, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter stating that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider claimant's questionnaire response or issue another order regarding this matter because the questionnaire response was late. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's February 24, 2021 application for review of Order No. 21-UI-160637.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire and attachments thereto, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit(s) will remain in the record.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 21-UI-160637 is reversed and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 61825 should be allowed and, if so, the merits of that decision.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

Claimant's request for hearing on decision # 61825 was due by January 13, 2021. Because they did not file their request for hearing until January 19, 2021, the request was late. Claimant indicated in their appellant questionnaire response that they received the administrative decision on January 8 or 9, 2021, and noted that the document was dated December 30, 2020, and postmarked January 5, 2021. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant also stated that they did not file their hearing request before the deadline because they were not informed on how to do so. EAB Exhibit 1 at 2. The document to which claimant apparently was referring, a copy of which was enclosed with their appellant questionnaire response, stated, in relevant part:

You claimed unemployment benefits for the week of 12-20-20 through 12-26-20. We cannot pay benefits for this week:

An administrative decision found that you were discharged for misconduct. If you have requested a hearing you should continue to report until a decision was made.

EAB Exhibit 1 at 8. This document is not an administrative decision, and claimant did not provide any information or documentation to suggest that they ever received decision # 61825 itself. If claimant never received that administrative decision, their failure to file a timely request for hearing on the decision may have been due to circumstances beyond their control. However, further inquiry is needed to determine whether they ever received decision # 61825, if so when, and if not, how claimant otherwise was made aware of how to request a hearing on the decision and when the request was due. The ALJ also should inquire into what other factors, if any, might have prevented claimant from filing a timely request for hearing, and whether claimant filed their request for hearing within a reasonable time (seven days) after any such factors ceased to exist.

Additionally, claimant stated on their appellant questionnaire response that they filed two requests for hearing online between January 9 and January 19, 2021. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant explained in their enclosed written statement that they sent "at least two" messages "requesting clarity" via the Department's online contact form. EAB Exhibit 1 at 5. It is not clear from these statements whether claimant actually submitted a request for hearing on decision # 61825 on or prior to January 13, 2021. On remand, the ALJ should inquire on that point as well, in order to determine whether claimant actually filed a timely request for hearing.

Order No. 21-UI-160637 therefore is reversed, and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed, or whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing, and if so, the merits of decision # 61825.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-160637 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Alba and D. P. Hettle.

DATE of Service: March 30, 2021

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 21-UI-160637 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
