

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0222

Affirmed
Overpayment Assessed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On October 6, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not available for work and was therefore ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for the weeks including April 5, 2020 through April 18, 2020 (decision # 70631). On October 26, 2020, decision # 70631 became final without claimant having filed a timely request for hearing. On November 19, 2020, the Department served notice of an administrative decision, based in part on decision # 70631, concluding that claimant was overpaid $574 in regular benefits and $1,200 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) that claimant was required to repay to the Department (decision # 143341). On November 21, 2020, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decision # 70631 and a timely request for hearing on decision # 143341. On February 8, 2021, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) served notice of a hearing on decision # 143341 and to consider claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 70631 and, if allowed, the merits of that decision. On February 26, 2021, ALJ Monroe conducted a hearing, and on March 5, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-162207, dismissing claimant's request for hearing on decision # 70631 as late without a showing of good cause. Also on March 5, 2021 ALJ Monroe issued Order No. 21-UI-162210, modifying decision # 143341 to conclude that claimant was overpaid $574 in regular benefits and was liable to repay $287 of those benefits to the Department and to have $287 of those benefits deducted from future benefits otherwise payable to claimant; and that claimant was overpaid $1,200 in FPUC benefits that claimant was required to repay to the Department. On March 25, 2021, claimant filed an application for review of Orders No. 21-UI-162207 and No. 21-UI-162210 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Orders No. 21-UI-162207 and 21-UI-162210. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in duplicate (EAB Decisions 2021-EAB-0222 and 2021-EAB-0221).

Based on a de novo review of the entire consolidated record, and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), Order No. 21-UI-162210, regarding the overpayment of regular and FPUC benefits to claimant, is adopted. The remainder of this decision addresses claimant's application for review of Order No. 21-UI-162207.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On October 6, 2020, the Department mailed administrative decision # 70631 to claimant's address of record on file with the Department. The decision stated, in relevant part, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received by October 26, 2020." Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) Claimant received decision # 70631 in the regular course of the mail.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late request for hearing on decision # 70631 is dismissed.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. A letter duly directed and mailed was received in the regular course of the mail. ORS 40.135(1)(q).

On October 6, 2020, the Department mailed decision # 70631 to claimant at their address of record. The 20-day deadline for claimant to file a timely request for hearing was October 26, 2020. Claimant did not file their request for hearing until November 21, 2021. Accordingly, claimant's hearing request on decision # 70631 was late.

The record under review does not show that factors beyond claimant's reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely hearing request on decision # 70631. Although the exact date on which claimant received decision # 70631 at their address of record is unknown, there is a presumption that a letter duly directed and mailed was received in the regular course of the mail. ORS 40.135(1)(q). Nothing in the record serves to rebut that presumption. Claimant's late request for hearing does not show that they did not receive the decision or that they did not receive it until after the October 26, 2020 deadline to request a hearing. Decision # 70631 stated that, to be timely, any appeal from the decision had to be filed on or before October 26, 2020. The decision also provided a mailing address and two telephone numbers for use in contacting the Department. The record fails to show that it was beyond claimant's reasonable control to carefully read decision # 70631, identify the deadline to timely request a hearing, and contact the Department before the October 26, 2020 deadline to file a timely hearing request.

To the extent that claimant's failure to file a timely hearing request was the result of a mistake on claimant's part, the record does not show that the mistake was an "excusable mistake" within the meaning of the administrative rules. The record does not, for example, raise a due process issue, and fails to show that any mistake was the result of inadequate notice, reasonable reliance on another, or the inability to follow directions despite substantial efforts to comply.

Because the record does not show that factors beyond claimant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake prevented them from filing a hearing request by the October 26, 2020 deadline, they failed to establish good cause to extend the filing deadline beyond October 26, 2020. Accordingly, their late request for hearing on November 21, 2020 is dismissed, leaving decision # 70631 undisturbed.

DECISION: Orders No. 21-UI-162207 and 21-UI-162210 are affirmed.
