

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0223

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FINDINGS OF FACT: On December 30, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not able to work from March 29, 2020 through July 25, 2020 and therefore was not eligible to receive unemployment benefits for that period (decision # 94953). On January 19, 2021, decision # 94953 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing. On January 21, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request, and on February 10, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-160770, dismissing the request as late without a showing of good cause, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by February 24, 2021. On March 1, 2021, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaire and a timely application for review of Order No. 21-UI-160770 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On March 17, 2021, ALJ Kangas mailed a letter to claimant stating that because claimant's response was late, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider the response or issue another order regarding the matter, and Order No. 21-UI-160770 therefore remained in effect. This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's March 1, 2021 application for review of Order No. 21-UI-160770.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

The parties may offer new information, such as information showing when claimant filed their application(s) for review or showing claimant's ability to work during the weeks at issue, into evidence at the remand hearing. At that time, it will be determined if the new information will be admitted into the record. The parties must follow the instructions on the notice of the remand hearing regarding documents they wish to have considered at the hearing. These instructions will direct the parties to provide copies of such documents to the ALJ and the other parties in advance of the hearing at their addresses as shown on the certificate of mailing for the notice of hearing.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Order No. 21-UI-160770 is set aside and this matter remanded for a hearing on whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 94953, or whether claimant's late request for hearing should be allowed, and if so, the merits of decision # 94953.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist.

The deadline to file a timely request for hearing on decision # 94953 was January 19, 2021. Claimant filed their request for hearing on January 21, 2021. Therefore, the request for hearing was late. However, the record under review raises the issue of whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 94953. In their response to the appellant questionnaire, claimant stated that "[they] thought [they] filed on or before the deadline." EAB Exhibit at 4. Claimant also stated in their request for hearing, "I have faxed & mailed my initial appeal prior to the due date of January 19, 2021." January 21, 2021 Request for Hearing at 3. However, the record is insufficient to determine whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing and, if not, whether they had good cause for failing to do so and filed a late request within a reasonable time thereafter. Because further development of the record is necessary for a determination of whether claimant filed a timely request for hearing on decision # 94953, or a late request for hearing that should be allowed, this matter is remanded for a hearing and order. If the ALJ concludes that claimant filed a request for hearing that should be allowed, the ALJ must then develop a record on the issue of whether claimant was able and available to work pursuant to ORS 657.155 for the period of March 29, 2020 through July 25, 2020.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-160770 is set aside, and this matter remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.

S. Alba and D. P. Hettle.

DATE of Service: April 6, 2021

NOTE: The failure of any party to appear at the hearing on remand will not reinstate Order No. 21-UI-160770 or return this matter to EAB. Only a timely application for review of the subsequent order will cause this matter to return to EAB.
