

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0422-R

Late Request for Reconsideration Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On March 23, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding claimant quit working for the employer without good cause and was therefore disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective January 6, 2019 (decision # 91105). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On May 3, 2021, ALJ Murdock conducted a hearing, and on May 5, 2021, issued Order No. 21-UI-166194, affirming the Department's decision. On May 25, 2021, Order No. 21-UI-166194 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On May 28, 2021, claimant filed a late application for review with EAB. On June 11, 2021, EAB issued EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0422, dismissing claimant's late application for review without prejudice and leaving Order No. 21-UI-166194 undisturbed. On November 18, 2021, claimant filed a request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0422.

This decision is issued pursuant to EAB's authority under ORS 657.290(3).

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) EAB mailed EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0422 to claimant on June 11, 2021. The decision stated that any reconsideration of the decision would be dismissed unless five requirements were met: the request for reconsideration must have been filed within 20 days of the date the decision was mailed; the request must have included a statement that a copy of the request had been mailed to the other party; the request must include additional specific details about the reason the application for review was filed late; the request must have included the date on which the circumstances which prevented them from filing a timely application for review ceased to exist; and the request must have provided sufficient information to prove that the application for review was filed within seven days after those circumstances ceased to exist. EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0422 at 1-2.

(2) Claimant filed his request for reconsideration on November 18, 2021. The request did not include a statement that a copy of the request was served on the other party, nor did it describe the reasons why the application for review was filed late.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late request for reconsideration of EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0442 is dismissed.

ORS 657.290(3) authorizes the Employment Appeals Board to reconsider any previous decision of the Employment Appeals Board, including “the making of a new decision to the extent necessary and appropriate for the correction of previous error of fact or law.” “Any party may request reconsideration to correct an error of material fact or law, or to explain any unexplained inconsistency with Employment Department rule, or officially stated Employment Department position, or prior Employment Department practice.” OAR 471-041-0145(1) (May 13, 2019). The request is subject to dismissal unless it includes a statement that a copy was provided to the other parties, and is filed on or before the 20th day after the decision sought to be reconsidered was mailed. OAR 471-041-0145(2).

EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0422 was mailed to the parties on June 11, 2021. The deadline for claimant to file a timely request for reconsideration was July 1, 2021. Claimant submitted his request for reconsideration on November 18, 2021, which was more than 20 days after EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0422 was mailed. Additionally, the request did not include a statement that a copy of the request for reconsideration was provided to the other party (the employer). For those reasons, claimant’s request for reconsideration is subject to dismissal under OAR 471-041-0145(2).

Further, even if claimant had filed his request for reconsideration by the timely filing deadline and had provided a copy of the request to the other party, claimant did not provide additional information with the request for reconsideration which would explain why he filed the late application for review on May 28, 2021, or if he had previously filed a timely application for review.

DECISION: The request for reconsideration filed on November 18, 2021 is dismissed. EAB Decision 2021-EAB-0422 and Order No. 21-UI-166194 remain undisturbed.
