

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0529

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On May 6, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not available for work during the weeks including May 31, 2020 through May 1, 2021 (weeks 23-20 through 17-21) and was therefore not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for those weeks and until the reason for the denial had ended (decision # 105742). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On June 8, 2021, ALJ Scott conducted a hearing, and on June 9, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-168431, reversing decision # 105742 by concluding that claimant was not unavailable for work and was therefore eligible to receive benefits during the weeks including May 31, 2020 through June 5, 2021 (weeks 23-20 through 22-21). On June 29, 2021, Order No. 21-UI-168431 became final without the employer having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On June 30, 2021, the employer filed a late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168431 with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is the employer's written statement filed with the application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 21-UI-168431, mailed to the employer on June 9, 2021, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed." Order No. 21-UI-168431 at 4. Order No. 21-UI-168431 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, "Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before June 29, 2021 to be timely."

(2) At some point during the week of June 13, 2021, the employer received Order No. 21-UI-168431. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Upon receiving the hearing order, the employer "misread the time frame to submit" an application for review and mistakenly thought they "had 20 days from date of receipt" of the order to file a timely application for review. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. On June 30, 2021, the employer realized their mistake and filed a late application for review. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The employer's late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168431 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). "Good cause" means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A "reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168431 was due on June 29, 2021. Because the employer did not file their application for review until June 30, 2021, the application for review was late. The employer provided a written statement with the application for review describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. The written statement explained that the employer filed their application for review late because they misread Order No. 21-UI-168431 and thought they had 20 days from receipt of the hearing order to timely file an application for review. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. The employer's misreading of the hearing order did not constitute a circumstance beyond their reasonable control that prevented a timely filing of an application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168431. The employer received the hearing order some time during the week of June 13, 2021, which gave them at least ten days to file an application for review by the June 29, 2021 deadline. Viewed objectively, it was within the employer's reasonable control to carefully read Order No. 21-UI-168431 and request a hearing by the deadline that was stated therein.

Accordingly, the employer did not show good cause for the late application for review, and the employer's late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed June 30, 2021 is dismissed. Order No. 21-UI-168431 remains undisturbed.
