

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0552

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On April 14, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision assessing an overpayment of $7,714.00 in regular unemployment insurance benefits and $8,400.00 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits that claimant was required to repay the Department, a monetary penalty of $2,314.20, and a 48-week penalty disqualification from future benefits. Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On June 10, 2021, ALJ S. Lee conducted a hearing, and on June 17, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-168980, modifying the April 14, 2021 administrative decision by assessing an overpayment of $7,163.00 in regular benefits and $7,800.00 in FPUC benefits that claimant was required to repay the Department, but eliminating the monetary penalty and penalty disqualification weeks. On July 7, 2021, Order No. 21-UI-168980 became final without claimant having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On July 9, 2021, claimant filed a late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168980 with EAB.

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's written statement filed with the application for review, and has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) Order No. 21-UI-168980, mailed to claimant on June 17, 2021, stated, "You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed." Order No. 21-UI-168980 at 9. Order No. 21-UI-168980 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, "Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before July 7, 2021 to be timely."

(2) On June 21, 2021, claimant received Order No. 21-UI-168980 in the mail. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. When claimant received Order No. 21-UI-168980, she misread the instructions concerning the period within which to submit a timely application for review, and mistakenly thought that she had 20 days from the date she received the order, instead of 20 days from the date the order was mailed, to file a timely application for review. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. On June 9, 2021, claimant realized her mistake and filed a late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168980 with EAB. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant's late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168980 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). "Good cause" means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant's reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A "reasonable time" is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168980 was due on July 7, 2021. Because claimant did not file her application for review until July 9, 2021, the application for review was late. Claimant provided a written statement with the application for review describing the circumstances that caused the late filing. Claimant explained that she filed her application for review late because she misread Order No. 21-UI-168980 and thought the deadline to file a timely application for review was 20 days from when she received Order No. 21-UI-168980. EAB Exhibit 1 at 1. Claimant's misreading of the hearing order did not constitute a circumstance beyond her reasonable control that prevented a timely filing of an application for review of Order No. 21-UI-168980. Claimant received the hearing order on June 21, 2021, which gave her 16 days to file an application for review by the July 7, 2021 deadline. Viewed objectively, it was within claimant's reasonable control to carefully read Order No. 21-UI-168980 and file an application for review by the deadline stated therein.

Accordingly, claimant did not show good cause for her late application for review, and her late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed July 9, 2021 is dismissed. Order No. 21-UI-168980 remains undisturbed.
