

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0627

Late Application for Review Dismissed

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On November 13, 2020, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was discharged for misconduct and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective June 28, 2020 (decision # 82540). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On July 12, 2021, ALJ Kaneshiro conducted a hearing, and on July 13, 2021, issued Order No. 21-UI-170223, reversing decision # 82540 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits based on the work separation. On August 2, 2021, Order No. 21-UI-170223 became final without the employer having filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On August 3, 2021, the employer filed a late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-170223 with EAB.

FINDING OF FACT: (1) Order No. 21-UI-170223, mailed to the employer on July 13, 2021, stated, “You may appeal this decision by filing the attached form Application for Review with the Employment Appeals Board within 20 days of the date that this decision is mailed.” Order No. 21-UI-170223 at 4. Order No. 21-UI-170223 also stated on its Certificate of Mailing, “Any appeal from this Order must be filed on or before August 2, 2021 to be timely.”

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: The employer’s late application for review of Order No. 21-UI-170223 is dismissed.

An application for review is timely if it is filed within 20 days of the date that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) mailed the order for which review is sought. ORS 657.270(6); OAR 471-041-0070(1) (May 13, 2019). The 20-day filing period may be extended a “reasonable time” upon a showing of “good cause.” ORS 657.875; OAR 471-041-0070(2). “Good cause” means that factors or circumstances beyond the applicant’s reasonable control prevented timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(a). A “reasonable time” is seven days after the circumstances that prevented the timely filing ceased to exist. OAR 471-041-0070(2)(b). A late application for review will be dismissed unless it includes a written statement describing the circumstances that prevented a timely filing. OAR 471-041-0070(3).

The application for review of Order No. 21-UI-170223 was due by August 2, 2021. Because the employer did not file their application for review until August 3, 2021, the application for review was late. The employer's representative provided a written statement with the application for review in which they explained the reasons the application for review was filed late. The representative indicated that the order under review arrived at the representative's office and was scanned into their system on Saturday, July 31, 2021; that the claim specialist to whom the matter was assigned "immediately" sent the order to the employer for review on Monday, August 2, 2021; and that the employer responded "first thing" the following day to request that the representative file an application for review. While this scenario does suggest that the employer and their representative had a short period of time in which to timely file the application for review, it does not show that they filed the application for review late due to circumstances beyond their control. For instance, the employer's representative did not explain why the employer was unable to respond to the representative's inquiry on August 2, 2021, or why the representative would have been unable to file a timely application for review on the employer's behalf on August 2, 2021 and then withdraw it if the employer indicated that they did not wish to appeal the underlying order. Accordingly, the employer did not show good cause for the late application for review, and the employer's late application for review is dismissed.

DECISION: The application for review filed August 3, 2021 is dismissed. Order No. 21-UI-170223 remains undisturbed.
