

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0642

Affirmed
Late Claims for Benefits Denied

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 25, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant filed late claims for unemployment insurance benefits for the weeks from May 9, 2021 through June 5, 2021 (weeks 19-21 through 22-21) and was denied benefits for those weeks (decision # 150437). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On July 27, 2021, ALJ Janzen conducted a hearing, and on July 28, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-171254, affirming decision # 150437. On August 5, 2021, claimant filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: Claimant's argument contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond claimant's reasonable control prevented him from offering the information during the hearing. Under ORS 657.275(2) and OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019), EAB considered only information received into evidence at the hearing when reaching this decision. EAB considered claimant's argument to the extent it was based on the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On March 21, 2020, claimant filed an initial claim for unemployment insurance benefits.

(2) On May 29, 2021, claimant attempted to use the Department's online claim system to file a claim for benefits for the week of May 16, 2021 through May 22, 2021 (week 20-21). The system did not allow claimant to file the claim for week 20-21 without restarting his claim. However, the system would not allow claimant to restart his claim online, and advised him to submit a ticket to the Department to request assistance. Claimant submitted a ticket the same day.

(3) Between May 29, 2021 and June 13, 2021, claimant attempted to contact the Department by phone multiple times, but was unsuccessful.

(4) On June 14, 2021, a Department representative responded to claimant by phone, assisted him in restarting his claim, and in claiming benefits for the weeks including May 9, 2021 through June 5, 2021 (weeks 19-21 through 22-21, the weeks at issue).

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Claimant filed late claims for benefits for weeks 19-21 through 22-21 and is not entitled to benefits for those weeks.

OAR 471-030-0045 (January 11, 2018) provides, in relevant part:

(1) As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) “Continued Claim” means an application that certifies to the claimant’s completion of one or more weeks of unemployment and to the claimant’s status during these weeks. The certification may request benefits, waiting week credit, or non-compensable credit for such week or weeks. A continued claim must follow the first effective week of an initial, additional or reopen claim, or the claimant’s continued claim for the preceding week[.]

(4) A continued claim must be filed no later than seven days following the end of the week for which benefits, waiting week credit, or noncompensable credit, or any combination of the foregoing is claimed, unless:

(a) The continued claim is for the first effective week of the benefit year, in which case the week must be claimed no later than 13 days following the end of the week for which waiting week credit is claimed[.]

The record does not indicate what the first effective week of claimant’s benefit year was. In the absence of that information, however, it is reasonable to conclude from the March 21, 2020 filing date of his initial claim that none of the weeks at issue were the first effective week of claimant’s benefit year. Therefore, under OAR 471-030-0045(4), the continued claims for benefits for weeks 19-21, 20-21, 21-21, and 22-21 were due by May 22, May 29, June 5, and June 12, 2021, respectively. Because claimant did not file continued claims for any of the weeks at issue until June 14, 2021, the claims were late.

The record shows that claimant made, at the very least, an effort to file a claim for week 20-21 by the timely filing deadline, but that he was prevented from doing so by the Department’s online claim system. However, OAR 471-030-0045(4) contains no good-cause exception¹ for failing to file a timely continued claim. Therefore, because he filed late claims for the weeks at issue, claimant is not entitled to benefits for those weeks.
