

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0710

Affirmed
No Disqualification

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On July 8, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that the employer discharged claimant for misconduct, disqualifying claimant from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective April 25, 2021 (decision # 144704). Claimant filed a timely request for hearing. On August 11, 2021, ALJ Murdock conducted a hearing, and on August 13, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-172559, reversing decision # 144704 by concluding that claimant was discharged, but not for misconduct, and was not disqualified from receiving benefits. On August 31, 2021, the employer filed an application for review with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB).

WRITTEN ARGUMENT: The employer did not declare that they provided a copy of their August 31, 2021 argument to the opposing party or parties as required by OAR 471-041-0080(2)(a) (May 13, 2019). However, even had the employer provided a copy of the decision to the other parties, it would not change the outcome of this decision because the argument also contained information that was not part of the hearing record, and did not show that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control prevented them from offering the information during the hearing as required by OAR 471-041-0090 (May 13, 2019).

The employer stated that they did not submit the information in their August 31, 2021 written argument at hearing because they were unaware that claimant would assert at hearing that she was not aware of the employer's expectation that the employer required her to contact all three owners before stopping deliveries on a busy day. August 31, 2021 Employer's Written Argument. However, the notice of hearing stated that the issue to be addressed at hearing would be whether claimant should be disqualified from the receipt of benefits because of a discharge from work. Decision # 144704 specifically stated in its findings that claimant was discharged for "not [obtaining] permission from all three owners when [she] shut down deliveries. This was a willful or wantonly negligent violation of the standards of behavior an employer has the right to expect because you were warned and then did it again." Decision # 144704. The employer therefore was on notice that they would have the burden at hearing to show what the employer's expectation was regarding stopping deliveries and whether claimant violated that expectation willfully or with wanton negligence, and that claimant's understanding of the employer's expectation was relevant. The fact that the employer failed to prepare to provide evidence regarding claimant's knowledge and understanding of the relevant delivery expectations therefore was not due to factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control.

In addition, because the employer's September 28, 2021 argument was not received by EAB within the time period allowed under OAR 471-041-0080(1), that argument was also not considered by EAB when reaching this decision. OAR 471-041-0080(2)(b).

EAB reviewed the entire hearing record. On de novo review and pursuant to ORS 657.275(2), the order under review is adopted.

DECISION: Order No. 21-UI-172559 is affirmed.
