

EMPLOYMENT APPEALS BOARD DECISION
2021-EAB-0860

Reversed & Remanded

PROCEDURAL HISTORY: On June 22, 2021, the Oregon Employment Department (the Department) served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant quit working for the employer without good cause and was disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits effective April 25, 2021 (decision # 72609), and an administrative decision concluding that claimant did not file their claims in accordance with Department rules and was therefore ineligible to receive benefits from May 2, 2021 through May 29, 2021 (weeks 18-21 through 21-21) (decision # 80200). On June 23, 2021, the Department served notice of an administrative decision concluding that claimant was not available for work and was therefore ineligible to receive benefits from May 9, 2021 through May 22, 2021 (weeks 19-21 through 20-21). On July 12, 2021, decisions # 72609 and 80200 became final without claimant having filed a request for hearings on those decisions. On July 13, 2021, the June 23, 2021 decision became final without claimant having filed a request for hearing on that decision. On August 13, 2021, claimant filed a late request for hearing on decisions # 72609 and 80200, and the June 23, 2021 decision.

ALJ S. Lee considered claimant's request for hearings on decisions # 72609 and the June 23, 2021 decisions, and on September 29, 2021 issued Orders No. 21-UI-175892 and 21-UI-175903, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by October 13, 2021. ALJ Kangas considered claimant's request for hearing on decision # 80200, and on September 29, 2021 issued Order No. 21-UI-175898, dismissing the request as late, subject to claimant's right to renew the request by responding to an appellant questionnaire by October 13, 2021. On October 14, 2021, claimant filed a late response to the appellant questionnaires and a timely application for review of Orders No. 21-UI-175892, 21-UI-175898, and 21-UI-175903 with the Employment Appeals Board (EAB). On November 1, 2021, ALJ Kangas mailed letters to claimant stating that because claimant's response to the questionnaires was late, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) would not consider it or issue another order, and that Orders No. 21-UI-175892, 21-UI-175898, and 21-UI-175903 remained in effect.

This matter comes before EAB based upon claimant's timely application for review of Orders No. 21-UI-175892, 21-UI-175898, and 21-UI-175903.

Pursuant to OAR 471-041-0095 (October 29, 2006), EAB consolidated its review of Orders No. 21-UI-175892, 21-UI-175898, and 21-UI-175903. For case-tracking purposes, this decision is being issued in triplicate (EAB Decisions 2021-EAB-0860, 2021-EAB-0859, and 2021-EAB-0858).

EVIDENTIARY MATTER: EAB has considered additional evidence when reaching this decision under OAR 471-041-0090(1) (May 13, 2019). The additional evidence is claimant's response to the appellant questionnaires, has been marked as EAB Exhibit 1, and a copy provided to the parties with this decision. Any party that objects to our admitting EAB Exhibit 1 must submit such objection to this office in writing, setting forth the basis of the objection in writing, within ten days of our mailing this decision. OAR 471-041-0090(2). Unless such objection is received and sustained, the exhibit will remain in the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT: (1) On June 22, 2021, the Department mailed decisions # 72609 and 80200 to claimant's address on file with the Department. Decision # 72609 stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than July 12, 2021." Exhibit 1 at 2. Decision # 80200 stated, "You have the right to appeal this decision if you do not believe it is correct. Your request for appeal must be received no later than July 12, 2021." Exhibit 1 at 2.

(2) On June 23, 2021, the Department mailed an administrative decision to claimant's address on file with the Department. The June 23, 2021 decision stated, "Any appeal from this decision must be filed on or before JUL 13, 2021 to be timely." Exhibit 1.

(3) Claimant personally received decisions # 72609 and 80200 and the June 23, 2021 decision on August 13, 2021. EAB Exhibit 1. Claimant did not file the request for hearings on these decisions before August 13, 2021 because they were not available at their address of record due to "black mold," "homeless[ness]," "depression," and "anxiety." EAB Exhibit 1.

CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS: Orders No. 21-UI-175892, 21-UI-175898, and 21-UI-175903 are set aside and these matters are remanded for a hearing on whether claimant's late request for hearing on decisions # 72609, 80200, and the June 23, 2021 decision should be allowed and, if so, the merits of those decisions.

ORS 657.269 provides that the Department's decisions become final unless a party files a request for hearing within 20 days after the date the decision is mailed. ORS 657.875 provides that the 20-day deadline may be extended a "reasonable time" upon a showing of "good cause." OAR 471-040-0010 (February 10, 2012) provides that "good cause" includes factors beyond an applicant's reasonable control or an excusable mistake, and defines "reasonable time" as seven days after those factors ceased to exist. Claimant's requests for hearing on decisions # 72609 and 80200 were due by July 12, 2021, and their request for hearing on the June 23, 2021 decision was due by July 13, 2021. Because they did not file their request for hearings on the three decisions until August 13, 2021, the request was late.

In claimant's response to the appellant questionnaire, however, claimant stated that they did not receive the decisions until August 13, 2021 because they were absent from the address where the decisions were mailed due to factors beyond their control, including black mold, homelessness, depression, and anxiety. If claimant did not receive the decisions until August 13, 2021 because they were prevented from retrieving their mail due to those factors, claimant may be able to establish that factors beyond their reasonable control prevented them from filing a timely request for hearings. On remand, the record must be developed to show why claimant was unable to obtain the administrative decisions for more than a month after they were mailed to claimant's address on file with the Department. For example, the record does not show if or why claimant continued to receive mail at an address they were allegedly unable to enter to retrieve their mail. The record also does not show if claimant used another address to receive mail during the relevant time period, and if so, why claimant did not inform the Department of that alternate address.

Further, if the record on remand shows that factors beyond claimant's reasonable control prevented claimant from filing the request for hearings in a timely manner, but then ceased when claimant received the decisions on August 13, 2021, claimant's August 13, 2021 filing date would be within the seven-day "reasonable time" requirement. To the extent the record on remand shows that factors beyond claimant's reasonable control prevented a timely filing, the ALJ should ask questions to determine whether claimant filed their request for hearing within a reasonable time of the date those factors ceased to exist.

Because further development of the record is necessary for a determination of whether claimant's late request for hearings on decisions # 72609, 80200, and the June 23, 2021 decision should be allowed and, if so, the merits of those decisions, Orders No. 21-UI-175892, 21-UI-175898, and 21-UI-175903 are reversed, and these matters are remanded.

DECISION: Orders No. 21-UI-175892, 21-UI-175898, and 21-UI-175903 are set aside, and these matters remanded for further proceedings consistent with this order.
